

From:
To:
Date:
Subject:

"Governor Haley believes we must maintain our current roads before we start building new ones. That's why she has proposed a plan that would be the largest single investment in roads and bridges in South Carolina history— stopping the current decline of our transportation system and investing $1.3 billion dollars improving it over the next decade.."