The President has issued a proclamation to display the flag of the United States at half-staff on September 11, 2015, Patriot Day and National Day of Service and Remembrance, in honor of the individuals who lost their lives on September 11, 2001.

Katherine:

My Clerk of Court called to ask about flag protocol for today. He says that there should be something out that the flags be a half-mast today. I told him I didn't recall that but would pass it along.

Hope you have a great weekend!

Larry
