Let me check about the cost – seems like I read something about that on their site. Seal should be no problem. If there is no cost break, I might do a minimum order first just so we can see if the quality is right.

These look great – sorry for the delay.
Either black or white would be great with the governor's seal – if possible.

We hopefully will use these for future tournaments as well – is there a cost break if we order 250 or 500?
Thanks, KV

Hey Katherine,

Hope you're doing well and having a great summer. Check out the link below re: photo holder cards and see if this is what you're looking for. They also offer custom engraving, so we can probably have the seal added to the front. Let me know what you think and how many you're looking to order (I think they're minimum order is 100).
