Subject: National my Social Security Week is here!

Dear Colleague:

For more than 80 years, Social Security has helped secure today and tomorrow with information, to changing needs and lifestyles.

National my Social Security Week starts today! If you haven't already, I hope you'll seize the moment for financial planning. Please take advantage of our web graphics, social media posts, and more publicize them all on our toolkit page.

We'd also like to take this opportunity to remind you that Thursday, April 7, 2016 is Check Your Social Security Statement Day. Your Statement Day is another opportunity to encourage others to join the millions who regularly check their Statement.

You can help by supporting our Thunderclap campaign to rally the public and use social media to encourage their Statement every year. This is important because we base your future benefits on your recorded earnings. We encourage you to go online to my Social Security to access your account, so you can help you plan for your financial future. We encourage you to go online to my Social Security to access your account if you have a change of employment or wish to verify any changes in your benefit estimate.

It's free, fast, and secure!

Thank you for helping us to support workers with this valuable financial planning tool.

Sincerely,

J. Jioni Palmer
Associate Commissioner for External Affairs
