Re: ~~Justin~~ Hym Owing
(Elyoungment)

Dear Howard Volney,

Enclosed is a copy of charge heard against my ex-daughter in law 16 years ago and the reason & why of you to please exchange this from the record. I tried try to explain my reason for asking you to do so.

She came into my life in 1992 when she and my only son (child) met and later married. She had a young son from her first marriage, when my son adopted when he was 5 year old, giving me my only grandchild. My son was a wonderful deal and fair; my grandson, Craig, graduated from the class in 2009. (Craig is also Stuart's only child.) My son was Capt. J Gump A. Spitzer and Benjamin and David lived at Dorchester during Kirk's Dept when he died. Capt. J. Spitzer died. (Age 44) when on a training trip. (Gump also worked at the same night on the weekends and was a successful with more for the young men and.) My wife's health & being my only child has kept me behind. Stuart is from for me every minute of the day. He had moved in with me and is my son - dad, my wife's son and the time for. I am 74 years old and still going great;

He for the for all Americans stands upon at the Secretary and President, he has that for 10 years and she had a week before few people have today.

I know the cause advanced to a number of other things paying jobs if these change number 4 on her record and I would love to know that, often I'm gone, she'll be in a position to change jobs or advance when she is, and it would please me immensely knowing I helped make it happen. She is a caring, caring, compassionate daughter and mother. Unfortunately, she was in the wrong place with the wrong people 16 years ago, but one big mistake in life.

Again, I add that you please keep our ties strong up. Thank you too, for the grand job you've done as Grandmother. I admire you so.

Warmest regards,
William M. Peters
