Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Americans have long understood and celebrated the importance of family relations, establishing such commemorative days as Father's Day, Mother's Day, and Grandparent's Day; and

WHEREAS, often the longest of all familial relationships, the relationship between siblings can have a significant influence on our lives from childhood forward; and

WHEREAS, Siblings Day offers an opportunity to show appreciation for our siblings, honor brothers and sisters who are no longer with us, and reflect on the role of siblings in our lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 10, 2014, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the importance of the bonds of sisterhood and brotherhood.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Nikki R. Haley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
