Spoke with Ray this morning to catch up with him on his plan. He's great, and I think the LG will enjoy meeting him. They have a center downtown Myrtle Beach (near the vicinity of where Highways 501 and 17 meet. He said the LG would be welcome to stop by there if he would like. The Carolina Forest center, which is on the way to Conway, is not one of their better ones. The Conway center is another option (unless he wants to say a quick "hello" at the one downtown as he passes by on the way to the Conway center). At the Conway center, he can meet folks, tour the center, and go on a meal delivery route (2-3 stops in the Conway area) with the person who handles their VIP program, a senior citizen veterans program. I just need to know a time to tell him the LG will be there and a time he would need to leave, based upon your other meetings; everything else is squared away. If it was up to me, I would say meet with the sheriff / staff right after lunch if possible. That way it would be 8:30a - 9:30a private meeting; travel time; 10:00a - 12:00p (or close) for center visits and meal routes... Keeping in mind that seniors do like to talk when he stops by); and time for him to grab a quick lunch before his next commitment. Here are their locations and info:

Senior centers are usually most active between 10:30a and 12:30p (especially if he wants to meet / talk with seniors there). Generally, lunch in the centers is served around 11:30a-11:45a. Home delivered meal routes typically are in motion between 10:30a and noon.

I've been in the longest staff meeting ever and I tried to escape to call Ray Fontaine, Executive Director of the Horry County Council on Aging, before lunch. However, he had just left when I called due to attending a funeral at 1:00p. I wanted to make him aware that the LG would be in town next week (as a courtesy) and also see if he had any suggestions as to what site would be best, based on their activities as well as the LG's travel route between meetings.

The time frames I mentioned above should be the same, but I will connect with Ray ASAP and get back with you. Just wanted to forward this information so I didn't hold up any other scheduling of meetings.

Hank, our visit to the Horry Sheriff can be anytime after 10. LG will have a private meeting from 8:30-9:30 in NMB. The question is if we should visit a center and/or deliver meals on our way to Conway (maybe Carolina Forest or even the one near Conway). Let me know what you think works best and the timeframe. I'll coordinate with Sheriff Thompson after that. Thanks
