Subject: Lucas on governor/roads

Does the governor believe this remarks accurately represent her actions on roads this year? Is she pushing the Senate to act? Has she done enough to push the Senate to act? How come the governor couldn't meet with Speaker Lucas this morning?

"She (Haley) believes her time is better spent endorsing opponents of sitting General Assembly members rather than demand senators across the hall do their job and pass a roads bill. Gov. Haley has actively used her bully pulpit to her advantage throughout this process but in the eleventh hour when we should be minutes away from reaching a compromise her silence proves she lacks concern for good public policy."

"We have two legislative days left and if a roads bill is not passed before the end of this session it is not this body's fault," Lucas said about the efforts by the House this year. "It is the fault of the Senate and the governor. They will have failed the millions of South Carolinians who demanded that we get this task done."
