The Put Down The Guns Young People Organization will hold two banquets with the first one November 21 2014 at The Nicholtown Community Center at 112 Rebecca Street in The City of Greenville. This banquet this night is for all children and teens. Everything is free and we will be serving Italian food. The banquet begins at 7:00 pm. On November 21 2014 our second banquet at S and S Cafeteria beginning at 6:00 pm. The restaurant is located on North Pleasantburg in Greenville. Our featured speaker is Ken Miller Chief of Police for Greenville Police Department. We are expecting both Senator Tim Scott and Lindsay Graham to be present as well as Congressman Trey Gowdy. We will be choosing a teen who is outstanding in this state to be our outstanding teen of the year. We are inviting this media to join us for both banquets. Everything is free.
