

ignored in history. But it is time to put it in its proper place: in a museum, beside all the other historic documents of our Great Nation. Let us move on, indeed.

Best wishes from Texas,
Courtney Johnson

June 24, 2015

Dear Governor Haley,

This is the first time I have ever felt compelled to personally write any government representative. I simply want to send my support to you and to the good people of South Carolina, in the movement to remove the Confederate flag from flying over the capital. No one, not I, wish it to be removed, banished,