New hire reporting responsibilities

Do you know that under state law you are required to report all newly hired and rehired employees 20 days after their first day on the job? Information received from the Employer New Hire Reporting Program will be used to establish and enforce child support orders, detect unemployment benefits overpayments and fraud, detect Workers' Compensation overpayments and fraud, and more. To report a new hire or to read about this program, go online.

Business service teams help find qualified employees

Recently, the Pee Dee Local Workforce Development Area helped McLeod Health recruit, screen and refer eligible applicants fill several entry level positions. The team also provided a job profile for each of the four jobs for which they were recruiting.

Cardiologist Dr. Alan Blaker is one of the 650 physicians serving McLeod Health's patients.
