Subject: Get justice in the bag for Giving Tuesday

---

Hi ToNew York,

#GivingTuesday is coming up next Tuesday, November 29. This is a special day to show your support for the non-profits that impact the lives of people you care about. I know you care about poor older adults because you're part of our network of advocates.

We will be there on the front lines in the coming months and years, defending the safety net programs low-income older adults rely on.

If you become a first-time donor to Justice in Aging for #GivingTuesday with just a $25 donation, you can get a FREE Justice in Aging canvas tote bag like the one you see me and some of our valued partners modeling here.

As a new donor, your donation will be doubled by a generous funder. There's no reason not to give. Give to Justice in Aging as a first-time donor between now and next Tuesday, November 29 and we'll send you a totebag.

Donate Now!

Thanks!
