Subject: STEM Proclamation

The 2016 Stem Festival is coming up on Saturday, February 6, 2016 at Brittlebank Park in downtown Charleston.

We were hoping Governor Haley would sign the proclamation again supporting this event like she did last year.

All the information will be sent to the printers soon and we were hoping to include her signed proclamation.

If possible could you get her signature and e-mail it back to me to include in the program.

Thank you,

Kim
