Celebrating Second Acts

by Nora Super

Last week, I had the pleasure of attending the Encore 2014 Conference in Tempe, Arizona. Encore is a national non-profit that's building a movement to tap the skills and experience of those in midlife and beyond to solve social problems. It was a fantastic opportunity to engage with this year's winners of "The Purpose Prize." They're social innovators over the age of 60 who Encore recognizes for using their life experience to make a contribution and a difference in their communities and around the world. I heard numerous stories about older Americans enjoying active lives—and making substantial contributions to their communities.

Empowering older adults with new opportunities to read more here
