All,
Per our meeting last week with the Governor, she wants to have our first "Agenda 2017" meeting to start thinking about what our budget/policy/cabinet/legislative agenda will be. I mention all four areas because some proposals may not require legislation and some may require all 4 components. She wants to do this first meeting Monday, July 18th which is earlier than usual but after that day, many of us and the Governor will be out of the office at differing times over the next 3 weeks.

I'd like to meet at the staff level this week to brainstorm on agenda ideas. Let me know if Thursday at 10:30am does not work for you. When thinking through your ideas this week, we should consider - what work is still unfinished, what do we want to (and what can we) accomplish in the last 2 ½ years and what work is important to pass on to the next Governor. There are many other things we can consider, but this is a start.

Let me know if you have any questions.
