

Activities at Gonzales Gardens

The Star

10/2/43

Mrs. Louise Wardell, president of Gonzales Gardens association, announced Wednesday evening at a business meeting that a "Womanless Wedding" will be staged soon at the social hall. Participating will be 35 characters and it is to be directed by Mrs. M. E. Peabody and her committee.

The regular weekly dance will be held Saturday night at 9 o'clock. These occasions are most entertaining and Mr. Trapp, chairman of business relationship, extends a special invitation to the soldiers of Fort Jackson, the trustees of Gonzales Gardens and their wives.

On the night of October 9 a tacky party will be given in connection with the regular dance. Prizes will be presented to the tackiest couple and the tackiest individual. A grand march and cake walk will be features.

Mrs. J. B. Lowe has been added to the corps of officials.
