Subject: TCL Talks: An invitation

Dear Lowcountry,

Join us for the President's Annual State of the College Address and reception, Thursday, January 19, 2017, from 5:30 to 6:30, in the atrium of the Angus Cotton Building on our Bluffton New River Campus. President Richard Gough will provide an update on the college's priorities for the region including the Lowcountry culinary institute and the regional workforce training center. Cocktails and light hors d'oeuvres will be served. Please RSVP by Thursday, January 12, 2017, to Jessica Bridges, 843.525.8294 or jbridges@tcl.edu.

Please support your community college by making an end of year gift to TCL. To make a gift go to <http://www.tcl.edu/foundation/giving-opportunities>. Click on Donate. With your help TCL will continue to serve more than 5,000 students annually. More than 93% of TCL graduates either go on to four-year institutions or move directly into jobs here, in the Lowcountry.

On behalf of the faculty, staff and students at TCL, thank you in advance for your support. We look forward to our work together in 2017.
