COMPLAINT FOR

RULE TO SHOW CAUSE

PLAINTIFF

VS.

2015 JU 23 1087-1091

Sylvia Murray and the South Carolina
Department of Juvenile Justice

DEFENDANT(S),

IN THE MATTER OF:

Jacob Theris Mauney

4 Berryhill Court

Greenville, SC 29615

DOB: [REDACTED] AGE: [REDACTED]

The Complainant on behalf of the Thirteenth Circuit Family Court Solicitor's Office herein, prays the Court for a Rule directed to the Defendant(s), requiring (her/him/them) to show cause why (she/he/they) should not be held in Contempt and would show in support of said Complaint the following:

On December 3, 2015, the juvenile above referenced, Jacob Mauney, was placed under a Commitment Order to the Department of Juvenile Justice followed by Placement and Probation (attached), by the Honorable Greg Seigler. This Order specifically sentenced the juvenile as follows: Jacob will receive Time Served on 1 Burglary 2nd Degree charge and serve 90 days consecutively on the remaining four (4) charges for a total of three hundred and sixty (360) days FOLLOWED by release to placement. Jacob is to be released to a SECURE placement following his 360 day determinate sentence. Alcohol and drug treatment is to begin immediately upon his arrival at the DJJ facility. It is to continue throughout his commitment.

And,

The Defendant(s) and/ or the minor child(ren) have violated the foregoing provisions of the Order(s) in the following respects:

This juvenile, Jacob Mauney, was transported to the Department of Juvenile Justice Upstate Evaluation Center on or about December 4, 2015, where he remained until February 19, 2016 when he was placed at Pinelands Group Home in Summerville, South Carolina. Jacob Mauney did not serve 4 consecutive ninety (90) day sentences/360 days before he was placed and Pinelands is not a SECURE facility.

A copy of the Complaint against the Defendant(s), is herewith attached to this Complaint and incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays this Court to issue the attached Rule to Show Cause directed to the Defendant(s), convene a hearing in this matter, hold the Defendant(s) in contempt and impose appropriate sanctions for violation of the Court's Order.

Dated: May 6, 2016
Greenville, S.C.

Respectfully submitted,

Attorney for Plaintiff

Attempted Auto Theft	11/30/15	12/3/15	2015 JU 23 1091

A DISPOSITIONAL HEARING was held on December 3, 2015 and as a result thereof, and upon the recommendation of the Defense and/or the State in this matter, I find that said respondent is a suitable person to be made subject to a determinate commitment to DJJ with release under an Order of Probation, as a means of disposition of the above charge(s).

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the above-named juvenile is hereby committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice. Jacob will receive Time Served on 1 Burglary 2nd Degree charge and serve 90 days consecutively on the remaining four (4) charges for a total of three hundred and sixty (360) days FOLLOWED BY release to placement.

THEREFORE IT IS ALSO ORDERED that, upon release from the above commitment to DJJ, the above defendant shall be on probation, for the following period of time:

X A definite period, until his 18th birthday

FURTHER, during the period of probation,

- 1) The defendant shall follow any instruction given by that probation counselor.
- 1) The defendant shall notify his/her probation counselor of any contemplated change of address or job.
- 2) The defendant shall attend school or work regularly.
- 3) The defendant shall not stay out late at night, but shall return home at a time determined to be suitable by his/her parent(s)/guardian(s) and probation counselor.
- 4) The defendant shall carefully obey all laws and shall not commit any other delinquent acts.
- 5) The defendant shall keep good company and good hours and refrain from visiting undesirable places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Jacob is to be released to a SECURE placement ^{followed by} ~~followed by~~ his 360 determinate sentence. Alcohol and drug treatment is to begin immediately upon his arrival at the DJJ facility. It is to continue throughout his commitment. Restitution is to be paid as previously ordered. Restitution in regards to the new charges will be determined at a later date. The previous probation order is closed.

FURTHER, during the period of probation, the probation counselor is authorized to instruct the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the defendant to participate in and cooperate with any service and/or program, deemed to be in the best interest of the defendant.

FURTHER, during the period of probation, the Court may, at any time for just cause, revoke, modify, change or extend the conditions of this probation. However, absent a subsequent Order modifying the term of probation, the defendant's probation shall terminate at the conclusion of the specified probationary period.

FURTHER, failure to comply with the terms of this Order and/or the instructions of the probation counselor, may subject the non-compliant defendant, parent(s) or guardian(s) to the contempt powers of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant remain in Greenville Detention, pending transport.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS SO ORDERED!

JUDGE OF THE FAMILY COURT
