Hi,

My name is Nicholas Libretti. I was charged with two crimes that I didn't commit, and was exonerated. The charges were dropped and expunged..I also have half custody of my children..There is a website, mugshots.com that refuses to take down my mugshot. I explained that charges were dropped and that I even have half custody of my children. He laughed and said no way was my mugshot coming off the website, even if I did pay the $400.00 fee...This mugshot is devastating to my character and hurts my prospects at a very good job..I am asking for your help, please in any way possible. I called the 1800 number several times, and get the same representative every time..I have included the letter of the charges being dropped...The "contact" number for mugshots.com is 1800-810-3965..I asked for the company address and was told it was " confidential"..There are many complaints about this "business" all over the internet...Please help me

Sincerely,

Nicholas Libretti

Re: Expungement Order

Dear Mr. Libretti:

The original Expungement Order has been filed with the Horry County Clerk of Court. Certified copies have been forwarded to all applicable agencies that are listed on the attached Memorandum including the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

Please be advised that it is your responsibility to follow up with the applicable agencies to verify they have removed the charge(s) from their records or computer/Public Index. If the charge(s) were on a Federal/SLED background check, then after approximately 4 weeks, you may choose to run your own background check ($25) via SLED Catch at sled.sc.gov. To check Horry County's Public Index (no cost), please go the Horry County Government web-site, horrycounty.org, click on online services and choose public index. If you find that the charges have not been removed in a timely manner, please feel free to call me and I will be happy to assist you.

If you need further clarification, do not hesitate to call me at (843) 915-8624.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Chichester
