Description/Significant Features:

The single-story frame Minimal Traditional residence stands three bays wide and rests on a concrete block foundation. An original centrally placed door is set beneath a replacement pedimented porch and flanked on either side by original three-over-one sash. An exterior brick chimney stack rises on the building's western gable end. The building is clad in replacement vinyl siding, but appears to retain most, if not all, its original windows.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):
