

Meet the President and CEO of Agapé Senior:

Scott Middleton

Scott Middleton is the president and chief executive officer of Agapé Senior, one of South Carolina's largest senior healthcare providers.

Scott holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Financial Accounting from Winthrop University, a Master of Divinity degree from Emory University, and a Master of Health Administration degree from the University of South Carolina. He is also an ordained United Methodist Minister.

Agapé Senior provides the following services for South Carolina's senior community in a faith-based atmosphere: assisted living, dementia care, skilled nursing and rehabilitation, a senior patio home community, in-patient and home-based hospice services, in-home care, physician services, in-patient and out-patient therapy, pharmacy, medical equipment and supplies, health and wellness services, ambulance and transportation, insurance services, and real estate. Agapé Senior has operations throughout all of South Carolina.

Scott founded Agapé Senior in 1999 and has grown to nine assisted living facilities, three post-acute care nursing centers, and is now the state's largest provider of hospice services, caring for more than 1,800 residents and patients. Agapé currently employs just under 2,000 with an annual payroll of over $32 million.

Scott is a published author of Parent Talk: The Nine Conversations to Have With Your Aging Loved Ones. He is also a member of the board of directors of the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce.

ARE YOU READY?

Each year, millions of Americans come face-to-face with the daunting task of providing for the care of an aging parent. Unfortunately, many find themselves ill-informed and unprepared. This reversal of roles, from care receivers to care providers, is often filled with conflicting emotions that are extremely tough to cope with amidst this enormous responsibility. Moreover, clashing opinions can quickly leave siblings and other family members at an impasse during a time when unity is crucial.

For these newly challenged care providers, the tide has turned. For those who don't know what signs to look for, this can happen without notice. As almost all of us will face this dilemma at some point, Parent Talk is a must read source of expertise and information for any adult child. Throughout this book, the author draws on his years of experience in senior healthcare to assist you in anticipating your parent's decline, understanding the best care options, and making sound decisions. Come gain the invaluable insights revealed through The Nine Conversations as you become your loved one's keeper.
