EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 90-02

WHEREAS, the Coastal counties of South Carolina experienced a winter storm and up to sixteen (16") inches of snow and sub-freezing temperatures during the period of December 26, 1989 through December 28, 1989; and

WHEREAS, the winter storm caused the freezing and subsequent breaking of water mains and house plumbing throughout the area rendering many homes and vital installations without water and thereby representing a threat to the health, safety, security and welfare of citizens of South Carolina in those areas.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor pursuant to the Constitution and The South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976, as amended, I declare that a state of emergency existed in Charleston County, and that I directed the South Carolina National Guard to provide water, assist civil authorities, and take all reasonable action as was necessary to provide for protection of life and property. Selected members of the National Guard were placed on State duty status in order to accomplish missions arising from the emergency.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 90-03

WHEREAS, David Whetstone, Sheriff of Calhoun County passed away on January 2, 1990, and

WHEREAS, Section 23-11-40(c) of the The Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended, proscribes the Governor may appoint some suitable person to hold the office until a sheriff is elected and qualified; and

WHEREAS, Section 23-11-40(b) provides that a specific election shall be held when a vacancy in the office of sheriff occurs more than one year prior to the next general election for county sheriff; and

WHEREAS, the next general election for county sheriff is more than one year from the date the office of sheriff in Calhoun County becomes vacant; and

WHEREAS, Section 7-13-190 of the Code provides a timetable for setting an election, whenever a section of the Code proscribes a special election whenever a vacancy occurs; and

WHEREAS, I, as Governor of the State of South Carolina, am mindful of the duties and responsibilities vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina.

Executive Order No. 90-03

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

WHEREAS, the citizens of South Carolina are exposed to dangers to life and property caused by the elements of nature and the mistakes of man; and

WHEREAS, natural and man-made disasters will inevitably befall the inhabitants of this state; and

WHEREAS, the office of the Governor shall act to promote and foster the safety, protection and well-being of the citizens and residents of this state; and

WHEREAS, a comprehensive and effective review of emergency management procedures and programs is prudent and useful after a large scale natural disaster so that future operations and programs will benefit when other disasters occur; and

WHEREAS, there should be advice and consultation by experts in the emergency management field.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the state of South Carolina, I hereby establish the Governor's emergency management review panel.

Page two

This emergency review panel shall review state and local responses and plans for natural and man-made disasters. This panel shall consist of local, state and national authorities in the field of emergency management appointed by the Governor. The chairman of this panel shall also be appointed by the Governor. The panel shall include:

- Two representatives of the Governor's Office;
- The Adjutant General (or his designee);
- The Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) (or his designee);
- One representative from the broadcast media;
- One representative from the print media;

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

90-05

WHEREAS, as a result of Hurricane Hugo, it is estimated that 36% of the State's 12.2 million acres of forested land received damage, causing an immediate loss to the forest products industry; and

WHEREAS, extensive damage was incurred on the State beaches, necessitating substantial replenishment of the beach area prior to tourist season and the planting of dune vegetation; and

WHEREAS, as a result of this destruction of our timberland and beaches, an emergency continues to exist making it necessary to salvage and use as much of the damaged timber as possible in the shortest length of time possible so as to minimize total waste and rottage of this valuable natural resource and to replenish sand; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to expedite the delivery of this perishable natural resource to consuming manufactures both inside and outside the state of South Carolina.

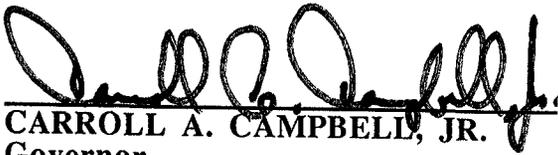

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby direct the South Carolina Department of Highways and Public Transportation to continue its moratorium for sixty (60) days on the vehicle gross weight of vehicles set forth in Section 56-5-4140. However, the overall gross vehicle weight shall not exceed ninety thousand (90,000) pounds and will include a maximum single axle weight not to exceed twenty thousand (20,000) pounds and a maximum tandem axle weight not to exceed forty thousand (40,000) pounds. This moratorium is for vehicles transporting trees and their by-products, and sand and rip-rap, as a result of the devastation caused by Hurricane Hugo.

WHEREAS, South Carolina has recognized the need to provide social and academic opportunities for high school students drawn from all parts of South Carolina who have demonstrated exceptional academic achievement, intellectual potential, and creativity; and

WHEREAS, a scholars program can provide accelerated instruction in a variety of disciplines in an environment of higher learning; and

WHEREAS, a program dedicated to the ideas of liberal arts education and the search for new areas and ways of learning will produce students who are self-aware, cultured, and knowledgeable about many fields of study; and

WHEREAS, such special educational opportunities are vital to the future of the state.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the virtue of the power conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the state of South Carolina, I hereby authorize the Governor's School of South Carolina at the College of Charleston as an organization with continuing existence since 1976.

The governing body of the Governor's School at the College of Charleston is the Board of Trustees of the College of Charleston, and the Governor's School is managed by the College. The course of study is determined by the College, and instruction will be college-level with students receiving college-level credit, if appropriate.

The dates of the program will be determined by the College with the length of the program to be four to five weeks.

The chief administrative officer of the School will be the director, who is appointed by the College, with approval of the Board. The College may adopt policies and regulations as it considers necessary for the operation and management of the School.

The College will establish criteria, standards and procedures for admission of students into the program. Students must be rising high school seniors who are legal residents of South Carolina and have been identified by their schools as academically and creatively gifted to be eligible for admission.

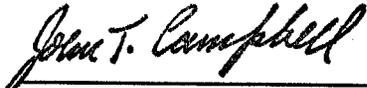

All activities undertaken in connection with the school must comply with state and federal laws prohibiting discrimination based on race, sex, national origin, religion, or handicap.

The College may establish an advisory committee for the School, and may establish and maintain an endowment fund for the school.

WHEREAS, the state will not be able to prosper unless the students of this state are adequately educated for the jobs of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, the state must continue to improve its primary and secondary education system; and

WHEREAS, the Education Improvement Act established a commitment to state-level education reform and this commitment was continued by Target 2000; Reform for the Next Decade; and

WHEREAS, accountability measures established by the EIA and continued by Target 2000 are recognized as critically important to meaningful change for excellence in education, and

WHEREAS, the technology of testing and measurement has evolved since passage of the EIA in 1984 and further development of accountability is needed if education improvement is to continue to be a state priority.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of this state, I hereby create the Governor's Task Force for Educational Accountability, which is to serve as a body for reviewing issues concerning testing, assessment and measurement as related to public school accountability. The members of the Task Force will be appointed by the Governor and shall consist of: (see listing attached for suggested membership)

Executive Order No. 90-18

The Governor's Task Force for Educational Accountability shall be charged with:

1. Examining the scope and nature of the existing testing programs in South Carolina, including the effectiveness of existing security practices, and their interaction with and impact on other educational programs and professional development activities mandated under the EIA and Target 2000.
2. Reviewing national techniques and innovations in testing and assessment being used or in development for statewide assessments. Such review will include, but not be limited to, the philosophy and the intended purposes behind the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP).
3. Examining steps taken by other states to ensure accountability in their education system.
4. Reviewing steps that could be taken to align our existing statewide efforts toward accountability with the newly established National Education Goals, including a statewide strategy for implementation and accountability towards achieving the goals.
5. Developing recommendations for guiding policy decisions concerning testing, assessment and measurement as related to public school accountability.

This Task Force shall have 24 members appointed by the Governor. The membership shall include six members of the General Assembly, six recognized business and community leaders, four recognized experts in the field of educational testing, one member representing the Palmetto State Teachers Association, one member representing the South Carolina Educational Association, one member of the State Board of Education, the Commissioner of Higher Education, one parent, one member of a local school board, one superintendent of a local school district, and one principal of a public school.

WHEREAS, the Office of the Governor has been contacted by the Federal Voting Assistance Program of the Office of the Secretary of Defense for the purpose of informing the State that the Presidential Designee under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, 42 U.S.C. 1973ff, has authorized electronic transmissions of election related materials including absentee ballots; and

WHEREAS, the Presidential Designee recognizes emergency conditions related to Operation Desert Shield; and

WHEREAS, this authorization is for the limited period of the November 6, 1990, General Election; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's Office has consulted with the State Chairmen of the Democrat and Republican Parties and has received their endorsement of this attempt to provide access to the ballot for the men and women participating in this operation, and has attempted to consult with the State Chairman of the Libertarian Party.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, do hereby certify that recent events in the Middle East, which have required the immediate assignment of thousands of American military personnel who reside in South Carolina to a military operation known as Operation Desert Shield, constitute a statewide disaster, for the reason that these men and women may be injured by a deprivation of their constitutional right to vote in the November 6, 1990 General Election.

I proclaim the existence of such disaster and direct that all necessary measures be implemented to meet that disaster including the use of electronic transmission in the voting process. Pursuant to Article 7, Chapter 3, Title 1, I hereby authorize and direct the South Carolina State Election Commission and the Board of Voter Registration in each of the forty-six (46) counties to comply to the fullest extent possible with the federal Act and to do everything in their power to ensure that each South Carolina resident in Saudia Arabia is given an opportunity to vote. Specifically, I order each county or voter registration to send by electronic transmission, upon request, a copy of the relevant absentee ballot to the appropriate military office in Saudia Arabia.

The State Election Commission is hereby directed to notify the appropriate county officials and to proscribe such rules, regulations or directives as necessary to protect the integrity of the military ballot while providing for the systematic and orderly transmission of the ballots in order to be received for the General Election.

In accordance with the statutory requirements, copies of this proclamation shall be filed with the applicable authorities.

This Executive Order shall be effective immediately and shall remain in full force and effect for the period of fifteen (15) days.

WHEREAS, an official effort is necessary to coordinate the design and effective delivery of adult education/literacy services to employers.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of this state, I hereby transfer the South Carolina Initiative on Work Force Excellence from the Governor's Office to the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education and create the Governor's Council on Work Force Excellence. This Council is responsible for overall policy development, long-range plans and recommendations, funding and evaluation of progress.

Further, the Council must be assisted by the business roundtables at the local level. These business roundtables shall be responsible for creating partnerships between employers and the adult education/literacy service providers. The roundtables shall make recommendations for service delivery to the workplace, evaluate the quality of service, identify the needs for additional services, and be advocates for the initiative's mission.

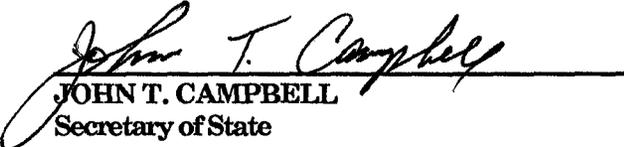

The Governor shall appoint the members of the Council and the members of each roundtable and all appointed members shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The Council shall make annual reports of progress to the Governor at the end of each fiscal year. The roundtables shall make periodic reports of their progress and recommendations to the Council.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 90-42

WHEREAS, the Auditor of Saluda County, Mr. Robert R. Able, has announced his resignation effective December 31, 1990; and

WHEREAS, Jane B. Guy, was duly elected on November 6, 1990, as Auditor of Saluda County for a term to begin on July 1, 1991; and

WHEREAS, Section 4-11-20, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976 (1987 Cum. Supp.) empowers the Governor to fill vacancies in any office of any county of the state as provided therein; and

WHEREAS, I, as Governor of the State of South Carolina, am mindful of the duty and responsibility vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this state.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of such authority, I hereby appoint Ms. Jane Beckham Guy of Route 4, P. O. Box 195, Saluda, South Carolina 29138, to fill the vacancy in the office of Auditor of Saluda County effective January 1, 1991, and until she shall assume such office for the four year term for which she was duly elected by the citizens of Saluda County on November 6, 1990.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE
GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH
CAROLINA, THIS 21st DAY OF
