David,

Thanks for reaching out, however I'm not sure how helpful we can be on a Pennsylvania special feature.

We hope to publish a special feature on Pennsylvania as part of one of our January 2017 issue. The feature would include a lead interview with Governor Haley, followed by additional interviews with prominent business leaders in South Carolina.

Specifically, these interviews will focus on industries that are looking for foreign investment, business and joint venture opportunities, as well as trade and tourism development.

In addition, special reprints of the feature would be available for your use as a mailing piece and marketing tool.

I have attached a few past interviews that will provide examples of the type of feature that we hope to arrange.

Will this be of interest?

I look forward to speaking with you and can be reached by telephone at 212-758-0740 or by email at dschner@leadersmag.com.

Warm regards.
