Katherine and Haley, see below. Can you help out Bea Wray's daughter? This seems to be a relatively straightforward DMV matter. Thanks. Tom

I just spoke with Ms. Wray. I explained to her that you would be the contact to collect information from her to try and assist with the issuance of a driving permit for her daughter. Please give her a call at your earliest convenience to collect whatever information you will need to assist her. Ms. Wray has been to the local DMV office three times and has spoken to numerous folks at the Columbia office. Based on my conversation with her, it seems the DMV cannot get past the German birth certificate.

Hi Tom, I hope you are great. I also hope your ears were burning as Vince Graham and I recently shared being "members of your fan club." I am sorry but I need your help. My daughter has lived in SC for 14 years. She is the top student in her class. She has an expired passport, proof of residency, a SSN card, a school transcript, and a German passport. The SC DMV will not issue her a driver's permit. I have contacted vital records, the US passport office (need immediate travel plans now for a new passport), the German Consulate, the Secretary of State. Seems like it should not be this difficult. Please help me with this simple task. Many many thanks, Bea beaswray@gmail.com 843-422-0161
