Although I am a Californian, I feel compelled to comment on South Carolina's decision to remove the Confederate Battle Flag from the State Capital grounds. Personally I believe it was a huge mistake. To politicize the issue because some deranged racist idiot took it upon himself to try and start a race war in this country smacks of pandering to the Leftists in America. His twisted views and the fact that he had the Confederate Flag on his clothing was no reason to bow down to the pressure of a few who are offended by the flag and seek to further their agenda and to change/rewrite the history of our nation. The flag didn't kill anybody! The fact that South Carolina took this action is bad enough but the fallout will continue to plague this country until the silent majority stands up and says No More. Already there are malcontents calling for the removal of the American Flag from government office buildings and grounds, networks are canceling iconic television shows and retailers are removing merchandise from stores because they are afraid of the backlash from Leftists. When I listened to you present the Republican response to Obama's State of the Union speech, I was really impressed with your thoughts and ideals, your take on the direction Obama was taking this country and more importantly I believed what you said the Republicans needed to do to get us back on track. Now I'm not so sure. This move sacrificed the values and principals this country was founded on and I believe it represents the general direction Republicans are headed, a move to the left. If I'm wrong please tell me.

Respectfully,

Patrick [REDACTED]

I am not sure who is advising Governor Haley, but removing the flag is only going to make things worse. The flag has been adopted by certain groups. It is not a symbol for 'racism.' It is a part of our history.

You think one 'racist' is bad, what do you think is going to happen when you anger a lot of them? Whom do you think they are going to direct their anger? I think we already know. How many black churches have been burned?

Also, South Carolina needs to treat every person the same. Governor Haley removing the flag was wrong. Actions to appease one group by breaking laws or proper procedure shows favoritism or fear.

Her actions are only adding fuel to the fire and show weakness on part of the Governor when under stress and pressure.

If the Governor felt this way about the flag, why did she wait til now to express it? We all know why. She caved to pressure. A real leader does what is 'right and just' for every person and community, not the ones the government fears. When the government officials are scared of being labeled 'racist' by blacks and fear blacks creating riots in our cities while allowing them to 'get away with it,' they are doing the very thing that created Dylann Roof.

Instead of removing the flag, why not address some of the reasons cited by Mr. Roof? We all know why you won't do this.

With all of the controversy going on about Confederate flags I've done a little research and found that the one flying on your state grounds was the battlefield flag used by the Army of Northern Virginia. Thank you for flying our flag but, if you're going to fly one from the past, why not be historically accurate? Otherwise what DOES it represent? Do your legislators know that it is the wrong flag? I have tried to paste a picture of South Carolina's Civil War flag but it's not working but this is a good link: <http://www.civilwar.com/resources/313-flags/150182-confederate-flag-history.html>. Thank you for your time.

Governor Haley, First of all we are extremely disappointed in you in the decision you made to remove the Confederate Flag from it's place on the Capitol grounds. We think you did this in haste and did not think it through. We are very sorry for the horrible incident which happened in Charleston, our hearts go out to these families and we have been praying for them. We have lost loved ones too, we buried both of our sons, one of our sons was killed by a drunk driver but we haven't seen you so upset about our loss. We haven't seen you trying to stop drunk driving in this state or take a stand against it. However, the flag had absolutely nothing to do with the disturbed person who did those killings. Also, on his facebook he was holding a US Flag which was burning. What are we to do now, take down all of our US Flags because of that stupid picture? We are saddened because you chose to do this without consulting all of your constituents, not just a few. We helped you get into office by voting for you because we believed that you would be fair to all, not just a few. We know that the flag doesn't hold any sentimental value to you. But it sure does to many of us who were born and raised in this state. We will never vote for you again for anything, we have lost our trust in you. We believe that the people should have had a chance to vote on something as meaningful as the removal of our Confederate Flag. We do not appreciate the way you handled this. Of course, I'm sure that doesn't matter to you, just like we don't matter to you. All you wanted from us was our votes. Maybe we are wasting our time even contacting you but we just wanted you to know how you have hurt so many people in the State of South Carolina and how you have lost the trust of so many that you pretended to care for, what a sucker we all were.

I was very disappointed in the way Governor Haley made an ultimatum to the state legislature to vote for removing the flag. I personally think it had no business on the capital, but I also feel the same of the United States flag that I fought for. When there is a issue that hasn't been apart of campaign or a debate among it's people during an election, you owe it to the voters to decide the fate of the argument. Governor Haley, your family's heritage doesn't date back to most of this state. It should have been put up for the people of SC to decide whether it should be removed. But once again, we have politics and correctness deciding how we should feel and act. Now, we have more division than ever with ignorance. That flag stood for our constitution and unfortunately left families divided forever. It was a scar on our nation as a whole. It had little of nothing to do with slavery or hatred of blacks. The north at that time and even today has no less or more racism than the south. Look at Abraham Lincoln himself. Stay out of fights that you are so ignorant about. You gave that punk that has as much knowledge as you of that flag's heritage the power of ignorance to divide this state. Thanks to you and ignorance, I as a white American will never be forgiven for something my ancestors never had anything to do with. Funny, I come from a family of indentured servants. How did your family earn their right here. Probably why you missed the opportunity to understand the real meaning of that flag to most in this state. I earned my own right to be here and I'm proud of my country and it's heritage. I don't recognize any prefix to American, not Scottish, African, Indian, etc. I'm an American! If that offends anyone, kiss my red, white, and blue ass, and take yours back to your prefix! I don't see discrimination, I just have it put in my head. I owe it to myself to give everyone equality, but I owe noone anything!

I have a question and doubt it can be answered the way it should be. I know I dont live there but it is a question no one has come up with.

what if it had been a United States of America that Roof would have been holding in his picture? Or what if it would have been the South Carolina state flag?

Would that mean those flags would have to come down and could not fly them any more?

think about it that is the only reason all the controversy over the Confederate flag now. If roof would have not had the Confederate flag in his picture then the flag would still be flying.

Roof just hated life in general and hated everybody in general he had a bad up bring,.

It comes down to its the feds fault because they didnt deny him from buying the gun when he should have been denied, but then he would have gotten a gun from some where else including stealing it.

<MSG>

Congratulations on putting the Confederate Battle Flag where it belongs, in a museum, and doing so with dignity. If our Southern states want to fly flags of the Confederacy as IS appropriate in a war memorial setting, they should at least be historically accurate flags. It is a shame this particular flag from the N. VA militia in the Civil War came to represent groups filled with hate. I am flabbergasted as a native of the South at the lack of knowledge people have not only over our history which is American history; but at the vitriol aimed at the South still. As if the South has some sort of corner on racism. I do not want to see our history erased as a result of this vitriol.

But, a flag is a symbol; a piece of cloth. That flag DID NOT KILL.

A gun killed those people in Charleston. It would be appropos now for you to lead the nation in calling for stricter gun control laws; that would be a genuine response and a true memorial to those people who died in Charleston. We have an awful lot of NIMBYS who will not like it. I hope you will rise to the occasion.

Your actions and those involved in making the decision to take the flag down, is one more example of destroying the American History. The Confederate Flag has absolutely nothing to do with hate or any thing of the kind! It is a Battle Flag period.

Taking down this flag also is like spitting on the graves of those whose blood saturates our land. Every single one of the soldiers who fought and were, are, and always will be, honored for this turbulent time in the formation of the United States. Appeasement of the few? That too is most pitiful.

I suppose the S.C. government and you, haven't read about that? The same as our children are not being educated nowadays, neither are all of you making this disgraceful decision.

Hello governor Haley. I don't usually write politicians :), but I have an idea I would like to share with you about the flag.

How would it be to have a "Southern Pride" flag flying in place of the confederate flag? One that has two sillouettes of a white and black person shaking hands and in the back ground something reflective of Southern pride for all citizens with the words "Southern Pride" interwoven in to the background.

Wouldn't this be a good way to appease every citizen who has been affected by the removal of the flag (both for happy and sad reasons) and make every South Carolinian feel connected? I hope this email reaches you and you have a chance to read it and consider my idea.

Thank you so much for your service
Doreene Tresh ( a northerner ) :)

LOOK what you have DONE,,,,, set this STUPID Example all over NOW people stealing peoples property all over,,, WE told you ,and tried tell those idiots you dont DO THIS..NOW the backlash going get WORSE. someone or alot of people going get hurt or even shot over stealing peoples property.. (flags)

when hundreds of people get hurt or dead over this.... (hope not) Was the 9 worth it??? was this teaching of INTOLERANCE worth it. I dont think so its a FLAG!!!!!!!!!!!! WHY cant it be a POSITIVE symbol to people?? WHY cant something NEG 150 yrs ago become a postive to people today.. REDNECK.. today is a neg symbol but back 100 yrs ago WAS a POSITIVE.. meant HONOR and PRIDE.. Coal minors fighting for equality!! wore RED BANDANAS.. hence REDNECK to show honor and pride,,that was POSITIVE symbol people were killed over that.. BUT today is a NEG... SO if a POSITIVE can become a NEG.. WHY cant a NEG become a POSITIVE... which it is to most. Intelligent folks whom dont see it as NEG and HAS GROWN UP and MOVED ON.. why cant others. you cant FIGHT racism with racism. two wrongs dont make a right... RACISM is telling a GROUP&lt; weather Black, WHITE ,asian etc they cant do this or have this,or follow your beliefs,.....Telling people the flag dont need be out. is RACISM.. you maam are as RACIST... plain and simple.. it dont have a color you told folks whom like the flag they cant have it on Government ground which is OWNED by the majority of the folks who like the flag and wanted it there... last I looked over 300,000 signed NOT to remove and only maybe 2000 wanted it removed THought we were a democracy?? majority RULES what happened to that.. Id say have the GOOD people of SC to vote on this issue. to put back up.. because you dont.. again just read the NEWS its going get worse and in the END everyone and history going go back to JULY 10th and BLAME YOU...

RECENTLY, A SPECIFIC CULTURE HAS INTENDED THAT AN EMBLEM-A RICH EMBLEM OF HERITAGE IN AMERICA-IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DAMNABLE ACTIONS OF A "LONE WOLF"INDIVIDUAL; THIS INSANITY IS TANTAMOUNT TO STATING THAT A FORK WILL MAKE A PERSON FAT. TEH RICH EMBLEM-THE CONFEDERATE FLAG-HAS BEEN A HERITAGE IN AMERICA FOR SOME 200 YEARS. TEH SPECIFIC CULTURE IN AMERICA HAS CREATED PROBLEMS, RAPED, COMMITTED CRIMES, ABUSED DRUGS, ROBBED, THIEVED AND MURDERED SINCE LONG BEFORE THE FLAG WAS EVER CREATED. THIS SAME CULTURE IS ATTEMPTING TO SUBVERT THE DEMOCRACY OF THE SOUTH, AND IT IS WITH HIGH HOPES THAT THE GOVERNOR OF YOUR GREAT STATE DOES NOT SUBMIT TO THESE EVIL-DOERS. THE PROBLEM IS NOT WITH THE FLAG-THE PROBLEM IS WITH THE INDIVIDUALS. DO NOT ALLOW THIS INSANITY OF THE SCAPEGOAT PRESIDE-USE YOUR GOD-GIVEN INTELLECT-STAND UP FOR YOUR GREAT SOUTHERN HERITAGE, AND ABSOLVE THIS GREAT EMBLEM OF ANY WRONGDOING. RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, STEVE [REDACTED]

<MSG>

I am appalled that you would allow members of the Black Panther Party to call for the deaths of white men and their families in your state. This is an act of terrorism but you are too focused on banishing the confederate flag to worry about death threats to the white people in your state. The confederate flag stands for southern values and morals. Not racism! Yes, let's ban that and preach that white men must die. You are encouraging a race war and you are fueling the fire. As an American and a southner who is a descendant of the Grey Ghost of the Confederacy you are doing a dishonor to my family. Every generation of my family has served to protect this country from the civil war through today. My question is do you plan to take action on the terrorist threat and death threat from the Black Panthers or just focus on the confederate flag? If you do nothing then I would say South Carolina is not a state people should feel safe visiting especially since our lives have been threatened. I will take to social media and encourage the American people to vacation in other states.

<MSG>

Did you know that the South Carolina State Museum in Columbia, South Carolina has a Civil War exhibit? If you try to find the Confederate Flag you have to look real hard. It is located in an isolated and almost hidden corner in a pitch black dark exhibit case. The only way to see the Confederate Flag is to hold down a button and a light comes on. Once the button is released the exhibit case is again in complete darkness.

Is this what "take the flag down" and put it in a museum means?

The confederate flag is part of our heritage. The flag has done no wrong. to hate this flag is to hate the people that want to protect it.

Have been following the confederate flag issue. There is supposed to be freedom of speech in this country and tolerance. Many people don't appreciate seeing a rainbow flag, urban gangster rap shirts and music, ect. in fact there are many things that upset many different people. However we do not ask it to be banned in this country due to freedom of thought, speech and ideas. choosing to ban and remove the confederate flag is wrong, misguided, cowardly and somewhat fascist in nature. It is WHATS WRONG with this country-cowardly politicians wanting to gain the acceptance of a few outspoken minority/special interest groups. over 90 percent of the south was fighting for their home and family and didn't own slaves. They were fighting against unfair taxes and fines by abusive Northern liberals. Lincoln himself-the so-called great liberator gave a speech claiming he knew the blacks and whites could never live together and proposed sending them to S. America after the war therefore Lincoln should be banned from History as well?

As a long time supporter and I think your one of SC best ever governors. You are making a mistake on the flag issue. BIG TIME. You are letting a sick individual and a sick media and special interests group sway your decision. Put it to a public vote in SC. We are the ones to make the decision. I am from Boston MA and therefore I am a damn Yankee :) Been here 25 years. Please reconsider. That Flag is history of the battle of the Civil War and all the people that think it is racist and I sorry to stay are idiots. Research history on THAT FLAG.....My best Regards, Newton

The Confederate Flag was not a symbol for slavery as the far left Communist claimed, white and black men fought and died for that flag. If you want to remove all memories of slavery, go out and tear down all remaining plantations where slaves were owned, forced to live and beaten, and burn the fields that they were forced to work in. These are the reminders of slavery, not the flag.

&lt;MSG&gt;

I do NOT want the Confederate Flag removed from the Confederate Memorial.

People are evil, not objects.

I will not be schooled by the press or our governor on the meaning of the flag to me, or who I am because I defend it.

Once again a senseless act of violence is being used to persecute the South for a slavery that DOES NOT EXIST, instead of holding a person accountable for his actions.

This issue and others like it (such as the renaming of Tillman Hall) are part of a larger effort to rewrite the history books.

"The further a society drifts from the truth the more it will hate those that speak it" - George Orwell

The Confederate Flag does not fly over the State House, it flies at a memorial. The issue of states' rights is as real and serious today as it was in 1865, while slavery has not existed in the South since 1863.

Confederate flag flies appropriately above a historical monument. If we choose to remove this flag, are we to also remove the names of Confederate officers from our roadways? Should we crumble all the Confederate monuments that dot the Southern landscape? Where does it end?

We do not heal from tragedies by removing whole passages from our history books and act like certain events never occurred. Sticking our heads in the sand and cramming historical symbols down the "memory hole" may feel good and play to our emotions, but it accomplishes absolutely nothing. DO NOT REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG IT IS PART OF OUR HISTORY LET THE PEOPLE DECIDE LET THEM VOTE !!!!!!!!!

Ms. H

I am really disappointed that you would undermine our Confedearte flag and what it truly stands for. The blacks (it seems) have taken over government and the officers in our government. Including Govs. like you.

The next thing they will call for is, to rename the White House, the Black House.

The blacks that were killed in that terrible church shooting should be remembered. But taking a flag down because the were shot by some cowardly man? What's the point?

My impression of you is: you thought that would give you some chance of being part of the upcoming Presidential race. I think you want to be called to be someones VP. But that is another story.

You are a beautiful young lady on the outside. BUt taking the flag down wasn't right. The truth in history (you evidently didn't read) is the warring tribes in Africa sold the losing tribes to the slave traders. It was blacks selling blacks. Period. But the blacks won't take responsibility for that. They want anything that is Free, especially gov. give-aways. And march? They march and burn their own homes and businesses down. This to me shows their mind set. This country is in terrible shape. And you helped dig the hole deeper.

Nikki,

While I may personally agree that it is time for the confederate flag to be removed from the capitol building, I still believe in the preservation of equality. That flag is a part of our American history, good or bad, but it has absolutely no bearing on any recent acts of violence. The flag didn't cause any violence, just like guns don't kill people. You can't fix the problem by taking down a flag. This is just another instance where special interest groups have twisted the situation to attack yet another symbol of America history and freedom. Look around, inequality is all around. If it's alright to take down the confederate flag, then equality would dictate that Black Entertainment Television (BET) or a show called "Black-ish" should be taken off the air. How long do you think (WET) or a show called "White-ish" would last before those same groups would want them removed too?

Govern with EQUALITY.

Sincerely,
Brett [REDACTED]

Hello governor Haley. First of all I want to say how much I respect your service. I'm not sure if this will reach you (I truly hope it does), but I thought I would give it a try.

I have a suggestion that might be a way of appeasing everyone concerned in the confederate flag removal. Why not put up a new flag! One that will reflect the southern pride that even I as a northerner appreciates. My idea is a flag with two sillouettes of a white person and a black person shaking hands. In the back ground, a soft depiction of southern pride along with the words "Southern Pride For All" interwoven in to the back ground.

Wouldn't this be a wonderful way to celebrate the South as it is today and make every citizen in South Carolina feel connected through their southern heritage? I appreciate your time for reading this, as I know how busy you are.

Thank you so much,

Doreene

Great job taking down the flag. My one problem is the multi-million dollar display that it will have. Why would the tax payers spend that much money when so much else is needed. I try to give food as often as possible to Bluffton Self Help and also support family promise. When so many people need so much, it is a waste of taxpayer money to spend so much on a display of a confederate flag. What a good thing to take the flag down and start to mend and then go and ruin the effort with all the waste.

Thank you for taking a stand and moving forward with the Confederate flag issue. I am a resident of Virginia but my ancestors are from S.C. and fought in the Civil War with the Confederate Army.

I have never viewed the Confederate flag as anything but a symbol of angst, hate more than heritage. It belongs in a museum and not on state house grounds. State Representative Jenny Horne could not have put it better in her speech.

For those in my family and friends who may appreciate the Confederate flag, thank you for taking steps to do it honorably.

I appreciate your leadership on this very tough issue.

I can not believe that your office had the Confederate Flag removed! Ya'll have disgraced the history of your ancestors. Please name 1 person alive today that was alive when the Confederate Flag stood for slavery and racism against black people. The office of the Governor of South Carolina is full of cowards. You gave into making 1 group of your population "happy". What about the part of your population that is outraged by your actions? Do you really think that this will end racism? You have just turned the flag into a Martyr. I hope you are proud of yourselves!! You have lost all respect and dignity.

I was sick and sad as I watched the Confederate Flag lowered yesterday. It has never represented hate for the blacks. Our ancestors fought for states rights and the freedom to govern our own states and not be controlled totally by the federal government, much like today! You said on CNN that you didn't want people to feel hurt when they see our Confederate flag, yet how much do we who lost our war and ancestors feel when we drive by to see it missing. Another defeat rubbed in our face???? I feel completely sorry for the nine innocent victims killed in church, but I also feel sorry for the over 260,000 soldiers who lost their lives fighting for what they believed in. A crazy person killed those sweet people, NOT THE FLAG!!!!!! If you were actually from the south you might understand it better.

sincerely,

Gwenn [REDACTED] Alabama native.

Subject: SC State Museum in Columbia - Confederate Flag

Did you know that the South Carolina State Museum in Columbia, South Carolina has a Civil War exhibit? If you try to find the Confederate Flag you have to look real hard. It is located in an isolated and almost hidden corner in a pitch black dark exhibit case. The only way to see the Confederate Flag is to hold down a button and a light comes on. Once the button is released the exhibit case is again in complete darkness.

Is this what "take the flag down" and put it in a museum means?

There was nothing that approached Reconciliation with chanting of Na Na hey hey an goodbye as you watched smiling. If anything this will only provoke anger further . Of course the anti flag people will wage total war on memorials cemetery's and such.

AS a Vietnam vet, son of a WWII combat vet, great grandson of a soldier in the [REDACTED] that lost an older brother at Chozen Reservoir I am sickened. I approved the flag lowering but now I have a visceral hatred for much of South Carolina. I hope no Southerner ever joins the military of the United States, that desecrates the memory of its fallen sons. If this is reconciliation what does triumphalism and taunting look like

Subject: This week in South Carolina

Gov. Haley, thank you for leading our great state, especially in the last few weeks. This is an important week for South Carolina. You have my full support in leading the way to get the flag removed. I hope to be there when the flag comes down. I just posted this on my Facebook page; Did you know that Robert E. Lee called the Confederate flag, "divisive symbols" that he did not want following him to the grave? Did you know that at his funeral in 1870, rebel flags were absent from his procession? Did you know that he requested that former Confederate soldiers marching not to wear their old military uniforms? Did you know that Robert E. Lee refused to be buried in his uniform, thinking doing so could be considered treason against the United States of America? Did you know that in his final years of life, he was so sensitive with extinguishing the fiery passions of the Civil War that he opposed erecting monuments on the battlefields where soldiers fought under his command? So I ask, if Robert E. Lee himself would be against the flag being in such a public display on the grounds of our State Capitol, who are we to think differently? Praying for peaceful resolution this week. Praying the name of God will be glorified in the discussions. Praying for the Palmetto State to once and for all come together as one to celebrate doing the right thing. Praying we will show the world what we are made of. Praying.

How dare you Governor Haley. You have proven yourself a coward with regards to the Confederate flag. What was once a non issue would have remained a non issue if you had the guts to tackle the real issue affecting Black Americans-gun violence. In the end though, you had to pander and beg up to the gun industry, and the flag was your scapegoat. You are a vile and disgusting individual and if you think Republicans will forgive your traitorous actions, you are wrong. We elected you to represent the entire state and its traditions, not to kowtow to lobbyists for political gain. Shame on you for selling your soul. You are truly the worst person to have ever held the office of governor in this state's history.

i read what is commonly called the Confederate Flag is really the Northern VA Battle Flag. It is sad that outside comments have influenced our lawmakers and governor. What will you do when othey demand removal of Washington's statute and rename Clemson University? Will you again fold like an accordion?

We were told 15 years ago that this matter was settled.

Subject: Confederate Flag Relocation

Governor Haley,

An idea crossed my mind that you might be interested in pitching to the state. It might also appease some of the people who are very livid with you right now. Move the flag (and the pole) to the state museum (outside). Possibly erect a monument or plaque which details some historical information about SC's role in the civil war and reflect the day it was taken down from the capital.

Hopefully in doing so, people will go there to view the flag in protest, and in the process they might actually learn something about our past heritage. We need to educate our residents on the history of the state one way or the other, for those who do not know history are doomed to repeat it. That being said amongst the fact that a good 50% of the people on the street you ask couldn't even tell you the year the slaves were made free and the civil war ended (1865).

This is just merely a suggestion though, and I hope it finds you well. Stand strong, those of us who elected you into office are still proud of you and stand behind you.

Warm Regards,
Austin R.

Dear Gov. Haley, I voted for you twice, and thought you were an excellent fit for our state, however you have proven otherwise these past few weeks. I usually lean to the right and identify myself as a Republican but you have shown me left or right, people will say what they want just to get votes. I know you have other political aspirations an the whole bring the flag down theme was what it was all about. It is with deep sorrow that those nine people lost their lives in Charleston from some nut case who will hopefully be delt with appropriately. Regretfully, you have turned your back on the people of South Carolina and the soldiers who died to defend it. If we all would just study history and quit letting the left winged media paint history, which is a trap I'm afraid you've fallen into we would see that flag was not fought over slavery, but instead for states rights. If that weren't the case then why would general Robert E. Lee and the Confederate president himself Jefferson Davis free their slaves 2 years before Lincoln would issue the emancipation proclamation. But Whats done is done, it may break my heart again but I'll get over it. Just whatever ticket you run on in the future we will all know you can't be trusted in this world of everchanging politcal correctness.

In your remarks you mentioned that the Confederate flag offended many people, you have no proof of the number of people it offended. If this flag offended many people for so long, then why is it only in June of 2015 that this became a topic, why , because MOST people have moved on. This is 100% political and you folded, you are weak...you can have a long career in Washington DC in your future...that's where the weak congregate.

The Southerners of America can be proud of the south just as Germans can be proud of Germany, or do you think that most Germans are anti-semitic?

Ms Haley, I'm so tired of spineless Republicans committing political suicide. Do you really think the "people" you are appeasing by removing the Confederate flag are EVER going to vote for you? I actually thought you had a political future. You might want to get an application in to work at Walmart when you finish this term. I hear they have banned the flag also. Very disappointed in you.

<SUBJECT>Personal Request Message : TRUTH Re-Nathan Forrest and The Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Honorable Governor Haley,

I am writing to request that your legislature, as well as those at the federal level, review the factual history regarding Nathan Forrest. He did not start the KKK, it is actually a fact that Nathan Forrest rode with county sheriffs in our state to disband the KKK when the group became so hateful and vile.

Forrest was a brilliant and well respected leader. Black men guarded and protected him, willingly fighting with him.

He did not have slaves, he had paid servants and 45 of the 46 who had worked for him before the war chose to go with him to fight. Rommel studied Forest's tactics in WWII, his tactics were taught at West Point. Even Norman Schwartzkoff studied and appreciated that wonderful leader, Nathan Forrest.

WHY is there such a pervasive move to destroy our American History and the leaders we have had?

It makes absolutely no sense whatsoever to allow the insanity within one young man's mind in South Carolina to set forth this ridiculous movement to destroy the Confederate flag, which was for freedom and liberty and it has never stood for slavery and hate!

Our entire southern heritage is apparently under assault. Our school graduates are alarmingly ignorant of our true American history and our heroic leaders of the past generations.

There is even ridiculous effort afoot to destroy the FICTIONAL "Gone with the Wind", Margaret Mitchell, Pulitzer Prize winning movie. This movie funded Morehouse College in Atlanta and enabled many young black doctors to go through medical and dental school free of charge. They never knew who their benefactor actually was. People who do not know the truth are easily misled. In reality, only the truth sets men free.

I strongly encourage our legislature in Tennessee as well as WDC to GET OFF of the Political Correctness Band Wagon and honor our heritage! Are the far left liberal progressives/radicals not doing enough of that to disgust us already?

Never in our history have we had a president who stirred up more unfounded racial strife than has Obama. No leader who deliberately goes about doing such deserves the respect of citizens no matter their race or political party preference.

Our elected public servants are not powerless unless choosing to be thus. Please continue to use your personal influence among them to reverse this destructive "Total Transformation of America".

Having been a strong admirer of yours, I sincerely believe you should reevaluate your position on the Confederate Flag removal from your capitol.

I would appreciate hearing your assessment and insights on this crucially important matter.

Sincerely,

Barbara [REDACTED]

Dear Governor:

I just wanted to say thank you for showing such grace, compassion and courage by removing the Confederate flag from the South Carolina state House. I know there are many in your state who cling to that flag in the name of heritage. But there are also people in your state whose ancestors were bought, sold beaten and treated like cattle in the name of that "heritage".

Your actions were brave and courageous. Thank you for reversing your previous defense of that vile symbol of racism and slavery. You truly honored the seven brave souls that were slain in Mother Emmanuel church. Bless you. May God be with you and your state as you mourn their tragic hateful loss.

Sincerely,

Martha [REDACTED]

&lt;MSG&gt;

Dear Madam Governor: There are a lot of people upset over your choice to take down the Confederate Flag. I'm sure you're getting lots of letters about this. Since you've chosen to mend broken lives and bring healing to the state through what you have deemed to be a symbol of hate, "The Confederate Flag", by removing it from the state house grounds to a museum, then I'd like to recommend another move for you to champion. "The removal of Andrew Jackson from the twenty dollar bill". In May of 1830, (30 years before the Civil War), president Andrew Jackson ordered all Indians to be moved to reservations that were to be west of the Mississippi. Although this move was supposed to be voluntary it was anything but that. The following torture and murder of the Native Americans, (Politically correct terms), and the deaths of somewhere around 16,000 Choctaw, Creek, Chickasaw, Cherokee, and Seminole people ensued from that order. The Federal Army oversaw the removal of the people from their native homelands and during that time the US Flag flew at the marches and over the land. It is rumored and has been written about that Andrew Jackson had an Indian woman's breast cut off and made a change purse out of one of them. Is this the type person that should be celebrated by putting his picture on our money that has, "In God We Trust" on the reverse side?

The Catawba Indians have been treated wrongly by the State of South Carolina and you need to right these wrongs. Since you took it upon yourself to decide that the Confederate Flag stood for hatred and not Heritage then stand up for what is right and start a nationwide movement to take Andrew Jackson off the twenty dollar bill and reverse the history that touts him as a hero. Show him as the bigot that he really was and denounce his reign of terrorism that left all those innocent people dead.

Sincerely,

Larry [REDACTED]

Re. The Flag. A sad thing, but I do not see a young person killing people he did not even know when I see the Stars and Bars, and I am from New Jersey. I see the thousand of Americans , from America who died doing what they were ordered to do first, and thinking they were doing what they should do second.

The right to express ones views, or Freedom of Expression includes one's right not to forget those who died. No I do not see that sad person when I see that flag, I see my fore fathers.

God Bless,

I am from the north, Pennsylvania. Ive been following the news: the church shootings, the flag debate and so forth. Let me say I am white and a Christian, and am sorry for the terrible act that occurred in the last few weeks. The debate over the flag is certainly a very emotional one. My family and I live a mere 12 miles from Gettysburg.( that town is actually our county seat) We all know the fame that town holds as the turning point of the Civil War. (Frankly, I am inclined to sympathize with the confederacy on some issues, but not for the reason of slavery!) Slavery was and would still be a very unfortunate part of our American history. I am also aware of your life history, having read your book. We have it at our home. Ive told my wife that Nikki Haley is a level headed woman, and you have our respect and support. We also read in your book about your conversion to Christianity. Good for you, all the while still respecting your heritage. God bless you and the people of South Carolina.

Governor

Just a slight comment. I do not think that the state flag should be changed. Th flag stands for what we should be considering right now, States rights. States rights and succession was the reason for the war. If anyone thinks that the young men enlisted in the Army of the South because the wanted the wealthy land owners wanted to keep their slaves then the are misinformed. This is a very important part of our American history.

You have insulted the memory of both black and white confederates. You need to better understand the history of The Civil War. The Confederate Flag has no more to do with slavery and racism then the American flag. I, like many others, are embarrassed that you and Jenny Horne are Republicans. Thanks for censoring a major part of American pride and history.

I'm so glad to see you remove the Confederate flag from your grounds. Now, since the gunman who killed the blacks in Charleston was seen with the Confederate flag and forced you to disregard your past to lower this stars and bars, I also saw a photo of the same gunman holding a burning American flag. When will your state lower and remove the American flag? Or are you just another rag head who caters to black racists, kinda like Obama? For some reason, I don't think you're going to do anything but maybe put up a bronze statue of Al Sharpton.

All I see are ignorant southerners.

I'm very disappointed in South Carolina when you have abandon the conference flag. The flag did not kill those people as tragic as the killings are. Why not go further and do away with all civil rights movement and museums. There are people who resent these but you don't care. I have always loved your state but behave second thoughts now

I was very disappointed in the cheering at the so called respectable taking down the Confederate Flag. It wasn't like that at all. The people there just showed how rude they are. How start doing something about the roads. To most people in the state that's what's important to us. How about doing it as fast as the flag. Then you could say you did something. Please don't send me a form email back, Don't make the next thing you do so one sided.

I grew up in NY and moved to VA at the age of 33 and have lived here for about four years. I am politically active conservative and this is the first time I have actually wrote a representative. Concerning thing is that I have to write a servent of the people in another state about your decision to remove the confederate flag. So not to waste your time or the person that will not read this and send it to your attention let me say this. You don't know your history, you are not a conservative and I will do what I can to make sure your time in office in the future is a limited one.

Thank you
A new flag owner,

First of all I want to say we have been praying for the victims of the recent tragedy. I feel the actions taken that are being to remove the confederate flag are adding insult to injury. The flag is no more a symbol of hate than a plantation home. Especially those that have been endorsed and funded for preservation by government funds. It seems there is a movement to remove our identity as a nation. These actions are more reactive than proactive. Where does this road lead us. Someone once said...direction, not intention determines destination. Where are we headed?

I close with this...a man walks into a tattoo parlor and looks over to see someone having the slogan "Born to Lose" tattooed on his arm. He asks the man at the counter...why would someone have that kind of message put on their body. The man at the counter replied. "TATTOO ON BRAIN BEFOR TATTOO ON ARM."

The further removed our nation gets from God and Christians principles described in the Bible brings these types of actions and others. When will we connect the dots...praying for you and your leadership.

let me start out by saying that I have lived in south carolina in the past, so I believe I can have an opinion on this. I wanted to say that I am very disappointed in your actions in caving into the liberals in this country by removing the southern battle flag. The only thing it has done is to lead to more and greater steps by the liberals to get rid of other items, ie tv shows, statues, and digging up dead generals. Once censorship starts it is very hard to stop, and with your move to cave in to the liberals demands you opened that door. Shame on you, you know that flag had nothing to do with the tragic murders in charleston, that came from the blackness of one persons heart. Maybe if we the people had not let prayer be taken out of schools many years ago by the liberals, this murder would not have happened in your state. All I can say now is that in my humble opinion you let your state down. Thank you for your time.

Dear Honorable Governor Nikki R. Haley

Simple note Of sadness and disappointment due too your having the sovereign flag of the secession of states that left the union.

I am from Michigan and no family connection with the south, but I am a student of history. Slavery was an evil that the founders wanted gone mostly, they gasve us a nation that made it possible too eradicate slavery. Constitutionally states have the right to leave the union and the flag represents that freedom from an oppressive federal gov.

Yes slavery was desired in the southern states, but the big picture is that God was going to remove slavery from our shores , because of the impact of the Gospel which was/is foundational to the advance of the west.

The story is black tribe leaders and Islamic slave traders in Africa.

Thank you

ASHAMED that you caved to the radical/hate/racist left on this issue of the Confederate flag. Mental illness and failed gun registration laws killed those people in that church. The flag and history of the south, had nothing at all to do with this senseless killing. Guns and Flags don't kill, people do.

That flag, graves, public buildings names for southern military men, statues aren't a sign of hate and racism. They are part of the history of the USA. You played into the hands of this racist administration and allowed them to use your state to strike out at others. What will be next: the CROSS, OUR Old Glory?

I'm a retired educator, my past family members didn't fight for the south, but by God I'll fly that flag in respect and for our freedoms. This horrible hate filled president is not going to tell me I can't that it is a hate crime, he is the one full of hate for our country and our Christian values and we must wake up and fight back to save the United States of America.

There was talk of you being a vice-president candidate, a rising star, that's over now.

We support Donald Trump, Ted Cruz, Ben Carson and Scott Walker to save this country.

Governor Haley:

Just wanted to express my appreciation and support for your stand in removing the Confederate flag from State House grounds. Growing up in SC and attending schools in Williston then graduating from Bamberg Ehrhardt in 1970, I remember well the years of turbulence during school integration. Although white, I felt such empathy for my classmates who were black and always wondered how they persevered. For those of us who grew up with that flag and the band playing Dixie, don't think we ever realized what it really represented (by being put up in 1962) until we were adults. My husband and I have lived in several countries and states with our two sons over the years and definitely developed a different perspective. It is the right thing to do and my husband and I applaud your courage along with the victims' families in Charleston.

Under normal conditions I would say you should be ashamed of yourself for desecrating American history by removing the Confederate flag. At the same time, I can't blame you since as an immigrant you cannot appreciate the rich and traditional history of the great state of South Carolina. The only thing you did was keep the track of political decisions based on social trends alive much like the SCOTUS and POTUS. I truly hope you enjoy the time you have left in office and the population of South Carolina remove you from the Governor's mansion so you can join the handful of racist supporter that applauded as the flag was lowered and sent to a museum. Maybe the next Governor will be a true Southern American that will appreciate what that means.

Just so you know, lowering that flag had nothing to do with a troubled child walking into that church with a gun. It just gave you an excuse to make some political "cool points". I hope you are proud of yourself. Maybe if you'd served this nation's military and walked a post or a patrol in defense of this nation you would have a better clue how to serve your state and this nation.

I am very disappointed in your caving to the media and others. To remove the Confederate flag was unforgivable. I realize that it probably was so you could play the politics of it but it hurt a lot of good Southern people.

I also realize you didn't have family members that fought in the War Between the States and died for STATE'S RIGHTS. NOT SLAVERY. If you had deeper feelings for the history of the South and the war, maybe you would have done differently.

I am a republican and had looked to you as a future hope for the party, but I will not consider you in other political endeavors.

I have never been so proud of my country as I was when I saw Gov Haley talk with such emotion and authority about a flag that needed to be removed, not because we blacks wanted to take away the perceived heritage of others but so we can begin the healing process as a nation and truly become one. I have seen so much change in my life but have rarely been as moved by that change as I was watching Gov Haley push for a that flag to come down. Though I am one of the rare blacks who personally do not feel hurt by the symbol, I know older blacks who feel hurt by the flag so I appreciate South Carolina doing something of which I know many of its good citizens do not agree. Mrs. Haley and Representative Horne are my new heros. This is what a powerful female looks like in its purest raw glory and this is why we need more women in positions of power. There is a decency with women we do not see with men at times that we as a country needs to heal from tragedies and move forward as a nation.

I want to be clear. I am an ubber liberal. I am black, gay and have mexican adopted children, one of which was undocumented when I first became his guardian. I have not voted for a republican in maybe 20 years but I would LOVE to have a chance to vote for Gov Haley as president if she ever chooses to run. I would even like to donate to her next campaign because even though I disagree with Mrs. Haley on nearly all issues, I love that she is authentic and replaces callous indifference we see so often in our politics of today with compassion and understanding. She deftly weighed the issues and tried to be respectful and responsive to all sides of which just made me feel she is wasting her time in state politics and should set her sights higher.

Please tell her thank you for me from the bottom of my heart. I feel love for her and for all of my south carolinian brothers and sisters as they have truly shown the world what forgiveness, heart, love and grace truly looks like. And even though I likely will not agree with most of what her entire staff believes, including the wonderful person taking the time to read this, I can not imagine such an impressive amazing woman having anybody but the most impressive amazing people working for her. So, thank YOU too, whoever is reading this. Thank you for your hard work, thank you for being amazing and awesome. And thanks for simply being an American. We do not have to see the world the same to love that we all share it together. And if more politicians were like Gov Haley, I can see a day where we as a nation stands hand in hand, together, once again. ((HUGS))

May I suggest a compromise, continue to fly the Confederate Battle flag in honor of those who died in defense of their state but add the words: "Heritage not Hate" on either side of the southern cross. It has been misused by racists, don't let them steal it so easily.

Cynthia Roldan's piece in today's Post & Courier speaks the horror and grief you felt choosing to attend the funerals of all the Charleston 9. As governor you have shown all public officials across America what it is to lead in a positive and constructive manner. You have caused South Carolina to cross the Rubicon of overt racism that still pervades the minds and bodies of many of our citizens.

The article also spoke to the peace you felt in your decision to advocate removal of the Confederate battle flag from the capital state grounds. For sure it is the right decision borne out of the moral compass you rightly used. That and much prayer I am sure. It took courage and willingness to take a risk for what is morally right.

I, for the life of me, if you work for "all the people," cannot understand your comfort at the removal of the inanimate flag juxtaposed with the continuing neglect of the less fortunate among us who are denied, by your advocacy and actions, participation in the Affordable Care Act through Medicare and Medicaid.

Surely continuation on the path you have so fiercely stood, despite the pleas of the medical community, the social service community, the religious community and all the other communities I will skip for now. South Carolina needs to participate in the ACA through Medicare and Medicaid to expand the medical options needed by our citizens. It is not going away, no how, no way. We have a four-tier system in South Carolina that needs to be fixed with less obvious distinctions.

The egregious consequences of the current state of affairs can be lessened with your executive actions. Thank you for what you have done and I am happy you were able to do the right thing respecting a flag. Please, let's now do it for the people. Get them better health care.

I was very disappointed in your decision yo remove the flag. I don't think it has anything to do with like/dislike or right or wrong. . It has to do with American freedom. It should have gone to a vote by the people. That is what a democracy is. I just bought our house in the wonderful state of S.C. due to your more conservative decisions. I'm beginning to be a little bit sorry. You let the people down on this one.

I am from Maine, the Southern Cross means nothing to me, but an attempt to eradicate American history as part of a knee jerk reaction is just plain wrong, You just created a deeper divide than anyone ever could have on purpose. People across the country are now advocating digging up and moving confederate soldiers remains, renaming towns named after Confederate soldiers hell the US Congress wants to outlaw the Confederate soldiers rally flag from their graves at all federal cemeteries and as an old soldier I feel that this has gotten completely out of hand and all because emotions got in the way of good sense. Oh by the way I am a Republican that had my eye on supporting you if you ever needed it but you have proven yourself to be to emotional to lead effectively. I feel so sorry for all of the Americans that you have so deeply wounded and Ostracized for their believes as to their heritage.

I will say again, the Confederate battle flag is nothing to me other than an historical rally flag for combat troops. It's historical value should end there, some half crazed KKK member waving it around does not re establish it as a racist symbol unless you are simple minded enough to lend it that power. I feel a deep concern for my country as our leadership is failing us at every turn. I implore you to let the good people of S.C. vote on this issue as anything else just looks like gubernatorial over reach.

Regards,

The Republican Party lost 9 votes. I nor my family will vote for a party that is politically correct instead of Constitutionally correct. The Flag is not as much an issue as Censorship and the fact you contributed to the erosion of all American Rights.

On a separate issue lowering the income tax and raising the gas tax is just a swap in the way we pay tax. You are not fooling anyone.

Ronald Reagan said reelect no one lets start over. I will no longer vote for the least of 2 evils. You true colors have shown this term. We have gone from a Country with a Government to a Government with a people to support it's .

S.C. always stood up for itself. You caved in to money and business. Being offended does not make someone right. Your actions offend me will you remove yourself from office? No because elected officials are special and the same Laws and rules do not apply. The pendulum always swings back to right and the elected officials will be held accountable under the Constitution that many Americans swore to uphold including you.

You sold us out again.

I am from San Francisco California.

Due to the recent news regarding the flying of this flag, I am wondering why there is still so much hate for the black man in your state and why educated people running your state government have not taken it down earlier. All this shows me is that the people in your government also have hate in their hearts. This is so sad. I am embarrassed that my country still has people in it that are so hateful. I am assuming that this hatred is local to your state, because we don't hear of any other states having this race problem. Shame on you South Carolina. You are a blight on our fine country.

Dear Honorable Governor Haley,

I am very appalled at seeing your removal of a historically significant part of South Carolina's history but more so with how you jumped on this subject immediately, for no reason other than some ulterior motive, and have caused a ruckus across the South like no other governor.

I do understand you have no family heritage tied to the South, and for that, it matters little. What I do care is how you incited this rallying cry to remove all of the heroes of the South from existence - "tear them all down", they're crying now and all because of your hasty action. There are even calls now to remove the monument to Andrew Jackson and Robert E. Lee in New Orleans and so many other famous monuments that dot the South, some over 130 years old.

You grew up here and have been handed a very good life due to your hard work and effort, that I do admire and is a great example to all and especially women. What I'm afraid of is that you never grabbed what it means to be from the South, for Blacks or Whites. In a way it appears you hold some kind of animosity towards the South in general, but I hope that's not the case.

My God, Governor, why would you do this fast after the atrocity at the church!? Where is the outrage over the drug epidemic where both legal and illegal pharmaceuticals, some of which I'm sure you're very familiar with. And the weapon the deluded young man used to kill those wonderful people? Where was the immediate attack on that!? You cared more about a flag than the drug epidemic, the murder epidemic going on in all parts of this nation.

The point of my address to you is simple, I'm disappointed in what you started and disappointed with what your legacy might be.

You can offer a peace offering with an address to the people of the State who did respect and adore the flag in the proper context for which it was supposed to fly.

As you well know, the monument celebrates the citizen soldier whose state taught them "How to live and how to die.." ..."From her broken fortunes she has preserved for her children the priceless treasures of her memories, teaching all who may claim the same birthright that truth, courage and patriotism endure forever."

Does truth, courage and patriotism for her State lie with Governor Nikki Haley? Can you courageously talk, one on one, with those in some honorable leadership like the Sons of Confederate Veterans, about the flag? Let them know that monument to CSA soldier is a monument that stays? I think that would be the right thing to do.

I am, Respectfully Yours,

Jack [REDACTED]
Columbia, Tenn.

I find very interesting that the Confederate Flag is taken down because of a few people find that it is offensive!!! But to Bill Cosby the administration gives this nations highest award the Medal of Freedom, given to a man that admits to drugging and Raping women?? I find that this is not only offensive but discussing!!! What's being done about this?

Thanks,

How dare you take down the Confederate Flag because of some upstart with obvious emotional issues. Put the Confederate Flag where it belongs on the capital building below the United States Flag.

Why are you rewriting history for one indigent? Besides who said President Obama isn't behind this whole thing in the first place. One last hurrah before he exits? Tell the President to mind his own business and stop interfering with state's rights and state's issues. For a Native American you really aren't that bright are you?

Mrs Haley, I have supported you as the leading person in our great state of SC. I have voted for you twice and still continue to support you. As the old saying go, I Feel you have open up a can or worms, other wise saying do not rock the boat unless it needs rocking. The past weekend I have never seen so many confederate Flags flying trucks, homes , etc. I truly feel you jump to soon on this to blame this on the flag. I can take it one way or the other. But I am really scare we have done the wrong thing and doing this without giving it some thought. Hertiage will go a lone way. I will continue to support you, but I truly worry what will happen soon to some very un happy people . Just expressing my thoughts. Hope it blows over but I have a feeling we all going to to regret before it is over.

I sure hope you're prepared for the consequences of this action!!! We went to see you at the Reagan Day Dinner in Dallas a couple of years ago; I'm not sure you are a TRUE AMERICAN!! The Confederate Flag represents alot more than slavery....it's OUR History!! You have started a very bad trend in this country (we've already had too many BAD TRENDS as it is!) and it's completely UNAMERICAN!! There are those who want to remove the statue of General Robert E. Lee right here in Dallas now!! Good luck keeping your job as governor!

Governor Haley, at one time I would have considered you for president. I kind of had you on a pedestal. But after you wanted the Confederate Flag removed from the Capitol of South Carolina I would never vote for you for any office. You fell for the far right progressives agenda. You do not deserve to represent the people of South Carolina or any other state. You dismantled history and many people's heritages. You are no different than a liberal Democrat. I hope you are voted out of office and that you will not serve another term. I pray the people of South Carolina will band together and VOTE you out!!

Dear Governor Haley,

Now that the Confederate flag has been taken down, we Americans really do need to thank you. The Race baiter, Pres Barack Hussein Obama will now hold his comments on white on black police shootings, white on black crime. Reverend race baiters Al Sharpton, and Jesse Jackson will suddenly stop milking the people of their hard earned money to stir up hate, violence and destruction through rioting. Blacks and Whites will now come together in hugs, handshakes, and good will, right?!? right?!? RIGHT?!?

The people of South Carolina should have had a say through a vote. This is just another example of Govt. overreach, TYRANNY. The voters will have the FINAL SAY come the elections.

Thank you,
Jim [REDACTED]

I think it is a sad day when our government can dictate our history..should we go ahead and delete the civil war from the history books???? the flag didn't shoot anyone .. a person did and he should pay the highest price for that. has anyone remembered that the civil war was over 150 years ago I think you made a mistake . I am glad I don't live in your state. I think that is the worst thing anyone call tell a governor sorry steve

You want to take the flag away because of slavery but yet you croon the Chinese to bring there Volvo cars here even though slavery is still going on in that country condoned by the government. The index, compiled by the Walk Free Foundation. The estimated 2.9 million people in modern slavery in China "includes the forced labor of men, women and children in many parts of the economy, including domestic servitude and forced begging, the sexual exploitation of women and children, and forced marriage", said the report.

Please get on the news and tell everyone about that. O you probably wont.

Hi you probably do not remember me but I drove you through the Michelin plant in Lexington on a golf cart and in a SUV after the ground breaking of the expansion. I would like to know if you have a confederate battle flag that I can have that glee on the state grounds. It would be a honor to have one with your office seal and signature since you played a vital role of taking it down.

Just a note to let you know that your GREAT concern that the Confederate Flag coming down was a moral issue who's time had come is a lot of Bull Crap. Your only concern was doing something to coddle the black populace and get the NAACP boycott lifter from South Carolina. You are nothing more than another coward who cowed and crumpled under the threats and abuses of the most racist organization in the world. Turn about is fair game, I suppose; please be advised that neither I nor my family, and for that matter none of my friends and acquaintances will ever again visit South Caroline nor will we do any business with South Carolina interests.

Madam governor,

I congratulate you on the stand you have taken to remove the hateful and divisive Flag. You have shown that you are a true leader who will stand up for her convictions. You have shown great bravery. When you stand before your God on your judgment day you will be able to show that you have cared about all his creations. I salute you governor, I just hope you will inspire other governors to be as brave as you have been.

Sincerely,

Christopher [REDACTED]

My wife and I support your proposal to bring the Confederate Flag down from the State House grounds. Please fight with the Senate and House to make this happen. It will be best for our state for this to happen this week rather than for the debate dragged out for months.

Dear Governor Haley,

You did a difficult and courageous thing leading the effort to take down the Confederate flag flying at your state capital.

You also did the right thing. Thank you.

My best regards,

Governor Haley,

I wanted to take a moment and write a quick note to you. I don't live in the state but have seen the issue regarding the flag on the news. There seem to be many special interest groups on the sides of this issue. I just wanted to urge you to ignore these groups and individuals from outside the state (I know that means me as well), but I urge you to check with the people of South Carolina and to follow the will of the people of the state no matter what that would be. This is an issue for South Carolina to handle based on what the people of the state want and not what others want around the country. Please find out either with survey or popular vote what the people of the state want. Then ignore the others and implement the will of the people of South Carolina.

Thank you again for your time, I have always loved South Carolina and will continue to no matter what decision the amazing people of the state decide.

Today is a great day for America. I and millions if others are extremely relieve led that that antique symbol if our painful past as a nation is permanently removed from the SC Capitol .
 Whit it was allowed to flu there in modern times is beyond me. Do the German still flu the Nazi flag on Government grounds? No! It is high time that our 50 United States of America get with the 2015 program. Racial hatred and national divide are not for today. Confederate flags may be collectors items, Just as Voodoo dolls and skull and cross bones are. They have NO PLACE in the national or state dialogue about the face of current American affairs or policies. Thank God that fLg is down. I am a whore female and that glad represent racial hatred and backward thinking to me. Lets get rid of the one in Mississippi too. Our nation is great and these old symbols of racial hangover hold everyone back.
 Thank you Governor for moving for ward swiftly, correctly and with accuracy and courage.

This is a defining moment in South Carolina's history to become epic and irrevocably pivot the direction of your state toward inclusion and not exclusion. Tell the great South Carolinian's the time is now to join with everyone else to recognize one flag that represents the United States of America. One nation under GOD with Liberty and JUSTICE for all!

Today the fears of the rich will collide with the needs of the poor and disenfranchised people. We will recognize and respect each other's right to have one state all inclusive. This issue has polarized, intimidated and humiliated citizens for over 76 years in your state.

Embrace the past with pride and admiration, no one is asking you not to do so. The Rebel flag serves as a vivid reminder that the state has many miles to go before it can sleep comfortably on a bed of harmony. Take down the princely flag ornate with its orbs of splendor filled with bigotry and separatism. Embrace a new crown of glory filled with opportunity and growth for each citizen albeit rich or poor.

Every person within the gates of South Carolina deserves to breathe clean air free from hate and toxicity. Today represents a new beginning for SC to move from its devout and intractable practices of trampling the rights of others because of power, prestige and position. To be honest, those that lack power and economic prowess will NEVER achieve parity in the state of SC. You must not legislate hate with policy, you must reach out and walk the battlefield explain to the vitriolic and bucolic people we must move past this immutable barrier.

At what point may I ask is the price of bigotry high enough to be purchased. Must we lose more precious lives over senseless acts?

South Carolina must Stand Up and change your lose to win. We must respect the Constitution of the United States and not that of the Confederacy. Be bold and audacious South Carolina for the world is watching you now. This incident has put South Carolina on a global stage how will you seize address this pivotal moment of greatness?

We want to commend Governor Haley for her leadership during the difficult weeks just past. Her assistance to the families of the Mother Emmanuel 9 as well as to our state in general has been above reproach. We are especially hopeful that her courageous call for the removal of the Confederate Flag from in front of the capitol will be the next move that our state can take to bring about healing now and a more unified populace for years to come. We will be in prayer that our legislators can accomplish this without rancor and disunity.

With prayerful hope,
Jo and Frank [REDACTED]

I'm a white American male born in German. I've read the history of the civil war. Your touchy-feely knee jerk reaction to blame a historical image and somehow believe this does anything to solve racism in America or SC is something the far left liberals do. You have desiccated the ancestors of millions of people in the south for a gesture that only sets you up to remove anything and everything liberal! black people and self hating white liberals. you will now have to give into anything they say is racist. You will be removing all confederate images whether public or private. You've painted a target on anyone who has a confederate flag! Your a party to all this witch hunting going on now all over America. Removing statues, digging up the graves of confederate soldiers, there will be people attacked and killed because of what you did. The removal of flags from grave sites, from civil war battle fields, you have not just removed, you have set back race relations back 200 years just so you and a few hundred historically ignorant people can feel good for a minute. Next you will have to agree to pay reparations to blacks because of slavery. You won't be able to disagree with anything the attach to racism. Your legacy is not gonna be what you think. It's gonna be that you were a pawn that played right gut into the hands of the worse president in American history and one day you'll wake up and realize that and it is already to late. Can't wait to see what you will ban next? Maybe you'll be allowed to burn the confederate flag in public. Or whatever order the race baiters want you to do. You'll not be governor again. Not as republican or a conservative. Btw shame on you.

Sorry I'm not even a resident of South Carolina, but I am a republican and I have to say that I haven't seen a republican buckle under the pressure of liberals like you just did in a long time. I hate to say it but you just lost your base in South Carolina that elected you. While I reject racism of any kind, the confederate flag is not a symbol of hate just because some ignorant people may use it for that. But the decision that you have made has sent a message to certain groups of people that all that needs to be said are the words discrimination , racism, etc. and you will buckle. Again I am not a citizen of your state, but this goes beyond state borders. It is a case of the members of the Republican Party not caving to liberals. What will happen next is the homosexual community will say that the Christian flag offends them and it will be removed next and replaced with a rainbow colored one. This may seem harsh, but you should realize that those that voted for you before will walk away from you now, and that republicans expect strong leaders to stand for them. That unfortunately hasn't happened in South Carolina.

You have done NO service to your state, to the South, or to the United States. Oh, I know your types. I assume you feel you have done something noble but what you have really done is something weak. Something that has weakened a nation. A nation that is SICK and TIRED and being told how to think, what to believe and CONSTANTLY told that all white people are racist. This cannot possibly continue. If you sincerely think that the race that created the western world and built the western world, including the United States of America are all evil and we must be pushed and bullied to the side of history and that blacks are the chosen race - then you are FAR beyond reasoning. I write this as one of but many that are EXHAUSTED with the way America is turning and your pathetic, submissive acquiescence to blacks will NOT be forgotten. Your political career is over and you will NOT ever be elected to anything again. Bring down the confederate flag and raise the white flag of surrender on your career.

If you have the time, try reading this:<http://thefederalist.com/2015/07/10/why-white-people-will-always-be-racists/>

Dear Governor Haley,

The Confederate flag is part of the history of our nation, and I agree it deserves a space in a museum, but not on the capitol grounds. I don't believe there is any other municipality that keeps a flag flying from days gone by, and thank you to you and your state representatives for making a tough, but (in my opinion) correct decision.

Very best regards,

Chris [REDACTED]

Good morning Governor. You where quick to call for the removal of the flag from OUR state house grounds but silent on the removal of our state right to define marriage as between a man and a woman only. I have voted for you in the past and you need to stand for ALL S.C. not just a few that yell the loudest. The flag stands for state right and not hate as stated by a few.

Dear Gov Haley, as a long time democrat I want you to know what your leadership in these last 23 days has meant not only to South Carolinians but to the nation. Your commitment to honor those who died tragically at the Mother Emmanuel Church and to keep the focus on how the families of those who died used their voices to forgive and show the nation love is impressive. You have modeled the grace those family members represent and the nation appreciates your compassion and leadership.

Thank You, Marsha [REDACTED]

Dear Madam Governor,

As individuals, in order to understand who we truly are, we need to understand where we have been. Our history needs to be remembered so past mistakes are not repeated. Taking the battle flag off the war memorial at our Statehouse will not be enough to appease its opponents. Other Confederate reminders will need to be removed as well. Attacks are already being made on Confederate monuments, license tags, welcoming signs to towns and Confederate merchandise is being removed from stores. No, opponents of the battle flag will not be content until all Confederate history is erased from memory. The same assault is even being carried out on earlier American history. Opponents want to rename buildings and places named after our forefathers too because they were slave owners. Maybe these people will be content when all history is erased. Then history will be doomed to repeat itself.

Those pushing their agenda are taking advantage of the tragic situation taken by the actions of a very mentally ill young man and don't really care about respect and tolerance for their fellow man. I hope my comments make a difference. At least, for now, I have the freedom to express them. I also think that my "one vote" will not matter to you but I always exercise my right to vote. I will remember how you choose to represent your constituents.

Sincerely,

Charlotte [REDACTED]
 Goose Creek, SC

I never thought that someone that fought as hard as you did to get into the South Carolina's peoples house would be such a coward when it came to the flag. I guess your just another Republican in name only. IT is sad. I had a lot of respect for you. Had being the key word. I would just like to thank you for helping the Liberal agenda along. That flag you had lowered just disrespected a lot of families that had relatives that died in that war. Thank you for helping our great country slip even further into socialism. Just remember you helped their cause and I hope you do not win reelection.

I am glad to see that you respond so passionately to offensive materials, and agree that they should be removed, even though I think it was a big mistake taking down the flag, I do believe that the African American Monument which stands on the State House grounds IS extremely offensive and must be removed. Surely it is not your intention to please ONLY the black population of our state, as the white vote should be just as near and dear to your heart. I do expect this atrocity to be removed in a timely fashion, thank you so much for your time.

Now you've torn it down on the State Capitol grounds in one place and you've chopped down a metal tree which held it. I hope you're proud of yourselves.

If you're a politician you've bought a few minutes of positive press from a media complex which will go back to hating you tomorrow. And you've earned a dark cloud over your head from those who know you sold them down the river in the name of political correctness.

Governor Haley, I do not have an issue with the removal of the Confederate flag but I do not believe the flag is a symbol of hate. My concern is the fact that we focused so much money and time on an inanimate object that cannot cause death or harm. We never addressed the status of mental health in the state of South Carolina. As an educated woman you know that terrible acts against society are often rooted in mental illness. We no longer have the proper number of agencies in South Carolina to deal with the problems of mental illness. It is very difficult to find a psychiatrist for those with problem and it is almost impossible to find help for the youth of South Carolina because of the lack of personnel and facilities.

In an interview that I saw on TV, you said that there was weight lifted from you because of your decision. You have not done anything to solve the problem in South Carolina and you have not been an example for the nation. You took the easy solution and I am so sorry for the families of the people that have lost love ones to individuals that are not stable and need the help of a professional.

Please take the time to:

Evaluate the agencies that address mental illness in South Carolina.

Find a way to encourage competent personnel to relocate to South Carolina or to encourage young people to follow a professional track that would aid South Carolina in resolving this issue.

Increase facilities that address mental illness.

Recognize that we, the people of the United States have a problem with mental illness.

Support the family unit, since the family is the basic unit that provides appropriate mental health. All people in the nation deserve to be safe and we must work to protect all people. We must show love and compassion to all people. Solutions to problems are difficult and the example of love by all the family members of Emanuel AME Church in Charleston was amazing. This should be an example and a call to work harder to prevent such a horrible act.

Thank you for your time and I hope that you will be part of the solution that helps restore mental health to South Carolina and the nation.

I understand the rebel flag is a symbol of pride for southerners that did not want to be a part of the United States, but with the recent talks of the flags removal from the State Capital, not only have tensions risen, but after rallies there has been mobs of whites driving throughout black neighborhoods intimidating families with their flags waving while children watch. It is nearly impossible to interpret these actions without using the words racist or terrorism. When using the flag to display hatred, it has a lasting effect, that runs deeper than pride.

Dear Governor Haley,

I grew up in Goose Creek, S.C., but have not lived in the state for many years. Full disclosure - I am an Independent and likely would not have voted for you If I did still live in S.C.

That said, I still would like to commend you on stepping up and leading the state during these past weeks since the shooting in Charleston. It's not often that we get to see a public servant step up in the way that you did and, frankly, it is inspiring to see!

When the news came out about the shooting, many of my friends remarked to me that it would be another Ferguson type situation. I told them with all of the confidence in my heart that Charleston was different, and that they would see the community come together. When the community did rally around the victims, their families, and the church, it was reaffirming to witness.

On your decision to lead the effort to remove the Confederate flag,.....

I believe that your decision may have been your finest hour! I also believe that you have an incredible opportunity in front of you. Today, our country needs someone who can lead us in that QUANTUM LEAP for race relations. You and the people of South Carolina have shown the rest of the country what this leap looks like. I just pray that you would seize this opportunity to continue to lead our (yes, S.C. will always be my home state) state in being the model for the rest of the country.

Lastly, I must confess that after witnessing your fearless and compassionate leadership over the course of the past month, you HAVE earned my vote and you're right. It's a GREAT DAY IN SOUTH CAROLINA!

All the best, Governor,

Sincerely,

Mike

I see the head the of the NAACP in South Carolina was not satisfied with your craven act in tearing down the Confederate Flag. If you or your lackeys caught the Al Jazeera evening news, the rather inarticulate NAACP head in your state tore you and the other political hacks there in Charleston to pieces. He launched an long diatribe about how you and your minions have deprived black people of education, how funding is looted to satisfy the greed of the Republicans in the House and Senate there, how from the top (that would be you) on down all "those people" need to go.

If you knew anything at all about history, which clearly you don't, you'd know appeasement doesn't work.

You have done yourself and the Republican Party great harm. I have voted Republican since I turned 18 and that was more than 40 years ago. But I never will again. I always said to myself that Republicans weren't much different than Democrats, but I held my nose and voted for them. No more. I am voting Libertarian. I know it means the Democrats will win elections in the South, when Southerners vote Libertarian, but you have shown me that I'm no better off voting Republican so why bother?

Least you see I am from Georgia and think I don't matter there, I have many friends and relatives in your State and I have been working assiduously to make sure they know what you are doing, and have done. They are people who voted for you and now they are ashamed to own up to it.

If I were you, I'd be looking for a job outside of politics henceforth. Maybe you could open a bakery, and make cakes for Gay weddings. You'd probably be better at that than you are at representing all the people of your state . I realize one of your toadies will just hit the delete button on this, but that's OK. I'll post it on my blog, which gets some 1000 hits a day. That makes it worth writing, even if the lickspittles there make sure you don't see it.

Not respectfully,

Frank C.

As a native South Carolinian and fellow Clemson University alumna, I applaud the Governor's efforts in getting the Confederate flag removed from the statehouse grounds.

If she is serious about racial healing and unification of SC, however, she must make policy decisions that reflect this concern. This includes accepting Medicaid expansion under the ACA, which would provide health care to thousands of SC residents, many of whom are African-American and Latino.

In addition, she would encourage the state legislature to repeal the divisive and unnecessary voter ID law that she signed a few years ago. Her rationale was that the law was needed to combat voter fraud, but the SLED report indicated that this is not a problem in South Carolina.

After removing the Confederate flag today it is now time for the state of South Carolina to start revamping the way the Civil War is taught. It is obvious that some people in your state believe that slavery was not the reason that Confederacy was fighting to secede from the Union. All people have to do is to read the articles of the Confederacy-- it is right there-- the reason for succeeding from the Union is to preserve slavery.

So why not set up a task force to look at the way educators are teaching about the southern way of life and the Conferacy.

You should be comparing this to the way Germany deals with symbols of Nazism -- do you think they proudly display the swastika in the middle of Berlin?

Dear Gov. Haley, I wish to thank you for your courage in reversing your stand on the flag issue. But I have a wish that you will look at Bill 3025 if it reaches your desk. The fact that the gun should never have been in the hands of the killer at Mother Emanuel and the FBI made an error and the dealer knowing the search was still pending could sell the gun after 3 days speaks to my heart and I hope yours. My husband is a retired SC State Constable. He feels very strongly about this also.

Without licensing and checks he wonders how many other killers could have gotten guns. With IS speaking to our youth, how many more? As a mother and grandmother I am appealing to you. Susan

I did not like the "glee" you demonstrated as you signed the bill to remove the Confederate Flag from the State House grounds. I have been for you in every respect previously, but that was no occasion to express the joy you seemed to have at getting that bill to sign.

I think the "other" side needs to change some things. I don't think a 75% illegitimate child rate is something they should be proud of. There are many things the Liberals need to change but they seem to have the old timers and Conservatives on the defensive.

I do not want to budge one bit on any more such as Confederate names, places, or monuments and I expect you to support that, Governor.

Thank you for your attention.

Been very proud seeing your behavior in the last few weeks!!!

As a resident of Maryland, I do not keep track of the issues in your state..

Want to know that I am very proud of you and the HUGE majority of the citizens of SC..

Good luck in your endeavors!!!!

You are a great voice for America, SC, and of course the women!!!

You put a lot on the line when you made your decision about the confederate flag..

You made a decision, handled it quickly and with grace!!! Sounds like a leader to me. Lynn Sent an email a few weeks ago. Thank you for the position you are taking about the RACIST FLAG. (just for background, read a little about speech of Alex Stephens, VP of Confederacy). As a registered Republican, we're out here watching. Too much politicians simply say, 'not my department/responsibility' when challenged to make a statement, take a position.

I think you can go to the State legislators of SC and ASK them, 'Where did this prejudice come from? How are we going to eliminate it from our STATE culture?'

As governor, I think it is entirely within your area of Capacity and Responsibility to move Your State in the Right Direction.

Governor Haley,

I would just like to thank you for your response to the church shootings and for the your initiative and support of removing the Confederate flag from your State building. I think that you are a forward thinking and compassionate person. I believe that under your leadership the State will progress. I am African American and I sincerely appreciate your progressive leadership. I do not reside in your State, but as you know, the world is watching.

Sincerely,

Marilyn [REDACTED]

 Ms. Haley

I have written you before so I wont repeat my position on your cowardly decision to remove the Confederate flag. I will however say that if you are serious in your stupid thought that this will improve race relations, you MUST honor the 2000 agreement signed that moved it from the top of the capital building to where it was and allowed a civil rights monument. This civil rights monument must be removed also. When the people can not trust their own government to honor a signed legal agreement it can kiss their country goodbye. This would include all streets named after them too. Until or unless you do this your actions can only prove to destroy you.

You have shown your cowardness at least you can do is show you honor agreements. NO racial harmony is possible at all currently nor will it improve in time if thats what you're thinking. Right now your face is THE enemy of ALL Southerners. How does that make you feel? Like some pioneering woman who has a bright political future? You could not be more wrong. Your career is over. You have indeed though strengthened the Confederate supporters to a level not seen since the Civil War. You have not destroyed it but made it bigger, stronger, and more visible.

<SUBJECT>Confederate-related flags on state property (monuments/buildings and other properties paid for by state and/or federal taxes)</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Greetings, Governor Haley,

Thank you, so much, for promoting the removal of the confederate battle flag from the capital grounds of the South Carolina state capital grounds. It has been, indeed, an historical occasion.

I am wondering, however, if this means that all confederate-related flags have been removed from all South Carolina state owned property--monuments and buildings? Have all confederate-related flags paid for by state taxes and/or by federal taxes been removed from monuments and/or state buildings and/or property?

I would appreciate knowing. Living in North Carolina often I have an opportunity to vacation in South Carolina and I would like to take advantage of these opportunities.

Thank you.

Best regards,

As a resident of NC I have watched with interest your success in leading SC in a new direction for jobs and the obvious leadership you have given removing the confederate flag from the grounds of the capital. I am a democrat and will be voting for Hilary Clinton and would like to see her as the first woman president. I must admit that I like your (what I call) 'moderate' stance on many issues and inclusion of democrats ideas in some of these. I would not be unhappy if you were our president someday and would vote for you.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. As I said in an earlier email to Governor Haley, I am very proud to be a South Carolinian and an American. I feel that the Governor and the Legislature made the correct decision and I, for one, fully support her and her decisions of late.

My request is this... I would like to have the flagpole that was at the Confederate Monument on the Statehouse grounds. I have the perfect place at my home in Greenwood to place it with an American flag atop. I can come to Columbia to pick it up at no cost to anyone and I will use it proudly.

Please take my request seriously, my wife said that I wouldn't get any response from anyone, as I feel that putting it to use in this manner would repurpose it in a way that we would all be proud.

Thank You,

Charles [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, First to introduce myself. I'm a 71 year old Grandma, a lifelong Democrat, living in Sausalito near San Francisco, originally from NY, raised my kids in Brookline (near Boston), and we've lived on the west coast since 1990. I worked as a Corporate Planner for Blue Cross & Blue Shield, a Development Director for various nonprofits, the Manager of a family fund, and for the past 15 years I've been a developmental editor and writing coach with clients including authors, agents and publishers. My grandparents were Jewish. I grew up Catholic. I graduated from Tulane (Sophie Newcomb), and I attended (though did not complete) graduate school at Emory. I'm a member of Glide Church - www.glide.org - in San Francisco, a "radically inclusive" Methodist congregation. My daughter and grandchildren are mixed racial. My son is a rock 'n roll musician here and in Europe. Enough about me. I want to introduce myself as a new fan of YOU - and I have a feeling there are lots of us. Thank you for your eloquence, dignity and conviction when the Confederate flag was taken down in Charleston last week. If you choose to run for a national office, and if you don't oppose choice (a bedrock issue for me) may I ask to work for your campaign on the west coast? I also have many useful ties on the east coast and in the south. There couldn't be a better time to begin. Cheers! - Ann [REDACTED]

Mam,

Congrats on letting southern whites know that their families deaths and heritage mean nothing. Did the people of your state vote on the flag or was it just some order you wrote....no vote ? Then you have betrayed the American People and the Republic that we are a part of. How much is special interest paying you ?

Congrats again upon dividing this country even deeper. We all understand that the continued persecution of the south will result in civil unrest. Probably the plan all along to declare marshal law. Go ahead you will fail.

When you are out of office you will not be allowed to manage a burger king.

Enjoy the rest of your term knowing you have personally done more to ignite hatred between the races.

Thanks for your time....

Governor Haley:

As an independent who tends to lean to the left, I want to thank you for your inspirational comments from earlier today on Meet The Press.

I was thrilled to see the flag come down on Friday and I was encouraged by your comments today. You and the people of South Carolina have done a remarkable job of coming together since the tragedy in Charleston. But what moved me in your interview the most was your desire for all of us to share views and to listen to one another. I agree.....we won't always agree with one another, but we should be able to agree to disagree and listen to opposing viewpoints. If that comes beck into politics, we all have a chance.

Good luck in the future.

I applaud the courage Gov. Haley showed in calling early for the removal of the flag. I am a liberal and appreciate Ms. Haley's wisdom to put politics aside and do what she morally felt was right. If more people on both sides of the ideological spectrum could emulate the governor's example, we could accomplish a great deal more. I have been to SC several times; it is a nice place and I hope things go well for both the SC people in general and Gov. Haley in particular.

<SUBJECT>The congress voted in 1959 to give Confederate Soldiers and Memorials equal status with Other Veterans </SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Governor Haley did anyone happen mention that the US Congress gave equal status to Confederate Veterans the same as United States Union Veterans?

By Federal act of Congress (May 23, 1958) all Confederate veterans are recognized as Unites States Military Veterans, and deserve all the rights and honors pertinent to such service.

Public Law 85-425: "Sec. 410. The Administrator shall pay to each person who served in the military or naval forces of the Confederate States of America during the Civil War a monthly pension in the same amounts and subject to the same conditions as would have been applicable to such person under the laws in effect on December 31, 1957, as if his service in such forces had been service in the military or naval forces of the United States."

Approved May 23, 1958 -

"Authorized the furnishing of headstones for the graves of Confederates who died, primarily in Union prison camps and were buried in Federal cemeteries.

Remarks: This act formally reaffirmed Confederate soldiers as military combatants with legal standing. It granted recognition to deceased Confederate soldiers commensurate with the status of deceased Union soldiers.

The Administrator shall pay to each person who served in the military or naval forces of the Confederate States of America during the Civil War a monthly pension in the same amounts and subject to the same conditions as would have been applicable to such person under the laws in effect on December 31, 1957, if his service in such forces had been service in the military or naval forces of the United States.

General Robert E. Lee Remarks: While this was only a gesture since the last Confederate veteran died in 1958, it is meaningful in that only forty-five years ago (from 2003), the Congress of the United States saw fit to consider Confederate soldiers as equivalent to U.S. soldiers for service benefits. This final act of reconciliation was made almost one hundred years after the beginning of the war and was meant as symbolism more than substantive reward.

Additional Note by the Critical History: Under current U.S. Federal Code, Confederate Veterans are equivalent to Union Veterans.

Researched by: Tim Renick, Combined Arms Library Staff, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Madam Governor the above mentioned Federal Statutes give all Confederate Memorials and Flags the same legal right to fly on public property as United States Flags and Memorials.

<MSG>

Good afternoon:

Please do a little research before accusing General Robert E. Lee and General Jackson of fighting to preserve slavery when the President of the United States denied that the war to preserve the Union was fought to end slavery (see quotes from the man himself below.) If you can give me a historical quote from either Robert E. Lee or Stonewall Jackson that they fought to preserve slavery than I will retract my opposition and volunteer to swing the hammer to shatter the glass. (I am confident I will win that bet because there are no such statements in the historical records In the meantime sir, I would suggest the following shows that the reasons for the War are not as simple as your recent public comments allude too and if you won't take my word for it, please look at the statements quoted below made by the man himself -Abraham Lincoln.

"My paramount object in this struggle is to save the Union, and is not either to save or to destroy slavery. If I could save the Union without freeing any slave I would do it, and if I could save it by freeing all the slaves I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing some and leaving others alone I would also do that. What I do about slavery, and the colored race, I do because I believe it helps to save the Union; and what I forbear, I forbear because I do not believe it would help to save the Union. I shall do less whenever I shall believe what I am doing hurts the cause, and I shall do more whenever I shall believe doing more will help the cause." See The Collected Works of Abraham Lincoln edited by Roy P. Basler, Volume V, "Letter to Horace Greeley" (August 22, 1862), p. 388.

"Do the people of the South really entertain fears that a Republican administration would, directly, or indirectly, interfere with their slaves, or with them, about their slaves? If they do, I wish to assure you, as once a friend, and still, I hope, not an enemy, that there is no cause for such fears." See The Collected Works of Abraham Lincoln edited by Roy P. Basler, Volume IV, "Letter to Alexander H. Stephens" (soon to become Vice President of the Southern Confederacy (December 22, 1860), p. 160.

If the war was about slavery than why did Lincoln offer an amended to the Constitution to protect slavery where it existed in his inaugural address? Why did the slave states including Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland, and Delaware stay in the Union? How can you explain the following quote given by the President of the United States a few years INTO the war?

FOLLOW THE MONEY. The federal govt. made all of its money through the tariff and post duties before the Civil War. No federal income tax existed (Lincoln issued the first one to pay for his war. It is commonly taught that the War Between the States was about the abolition of slavery. Actually, the impetus for the war was due to a tariff placed on imported goods coming through Southern sea ports by a Northern dominated Congress. This tariff was referred to by Southerners as the Tariff of Abominations and nearly caused South Carolina to secede from the Union. Andrew Jackson threatened to send federal troops to Charleston if South Carolina refused to collect the tariff and send it to Washington. (See "Kearney's March" by Winston Groom.) This tariff was used to build roads and bridges in the northern states (Pork barrel politics) while the south received little federal improvement projects in comparison and hurt its trade with other countries .Senator William Grayson of Virginia expressed concern that the South would eventually become the "milch cow" of the Union. When the southern states threatened secession, Lincoln was asked why he didn't just let the South go. He said: "Let the South go? Let the South go! Where then shall we get our revenues?"(See "Memoirs of Service Afloat" by Raphael Semmes.)

Lincoln was firmly against the extension of slavery into new states but promised to push through an Amendment to the Constitution protecting slavery where it currently existed in 1861 during his inaugural speech.

Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation excluded slave states that remained in the Union and certain parishes in Louisiana that were under control of Union troops. It only applied to states in the Confederacy, which was a sovereign nation, over which Lincoln had no legal authority. Therefore, his proclamation did not free slaves anywhere. Slaves were eventually freed by passage of the Thirteenth Amendment on December 6th, 1865. (Also, the proclamation gave the South THREE months to come back into the Union before it went into effect. Lincoln tangled the enticement that if the South came back into the Union within that time frame than slavery would not be interfered with and would continue to exist).

At the beginning of the Civil War, Union General Fremont issued an emancipation proclamation to free the slaves in Missouri. Abraham Lincoln ordered him to rescind this proclamation, because Lincoln was afraid it would antagonize Kentuckians who were considering seceding from the union. General Fremont refused to rescind his emancipation proclamation, and Lincoln fired him. (See "This Hallowed Ground" by Pulitzer Prize winning author, Bruce Catton). Fremont's wife begged Lincoln to reinstate him. The President replied that the War was being fought for, "for a great national idea, the Union and that General Fremont should not have dragged the negro into it." See National Geographic's Eyewitnesses to the Civil War."

The Aar started to preserve the Union. The President of the United States stated time and again that was the purpose of the War. The destruction of slavery became a RESULT of the war, NOT the cause.

Please keep the statements above in mind before taking extremely narrow views on what the Confederate Battleflag stands for and the motivations behind the President of the United States who ordered thousands of men to their deaths in an attempt to defeat those who fought under it.

Sincerely

Steven

To the Honorable Nikki R. Haley,

Just a note to let you know that never heard of you, until the shooting in your state.

You handled this situation very well.

Also wish you could be the Governor here in Pa.

Your compassion for others is Great.

And all the words you use are just right.

Just want to know if you have a news letter list I could get on to keep in touch, since you seem to be so realistic in all the bad situations you have to deal with.

I Pray you will find time to let me know, at age 77,I would be very honored to hear from you, personally.

Very Sincerely,

Donnie [REDACTED] Ps the troops stumped through here to get to Gettysburg in those days when this all started.

Thank you so much for your kind reply

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

Dear Mrs. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley
