"WHAT'S THE LEAD, AP?"

In this June 3, 1996 file photo, gamblers fill tables on two decks during a practice cruise on the Majestic Star Casino ship. Donald Trump's appeal to black voters sounds familiar in Gary, and not in a good way. In 1993, Trump swooped in with a private jet and pledged to make the down-in-the-luck city great again with a riverboat casino along a Lake Michigan shoreline littered with shuttered factories. Little more than a decade later Trump's company declared bankruptcy, leaving behind anger and hard feelings in the majority-black city. (AP Photo/Michael Conroy, File)

Years after casino went bust, Gary still skeptical of Trump

GARY, Ind. (AP) — Donald Trump swooped into Gary, Indiana, on his private jet and pledged to make the down-trodden city great again. It was 1993, and the New York mogul was wooing officials in the mostly black city to support his bid to build a showboat casino along a Lake Michigan shoreline littered with shuttered factories.

Clinton campaign raced through \$50 million last month

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hillary Clinton spent $645,000 more a day than her opponent Donald Trump last month, but despite her $50 million campaign outlay, she has not been able to pull away from him in the race for the White House. Clinton's campaign had its most expensive month to date in August, eclipsing its previous monthly high by more than $12 million.

Obama, Netanyahu meeting a capstone to years of testy ties

NEW YORK (AP) — Frustrated after years of fraught diplomacy, President Barack Obama will seek Wednesday to cement a partnership with Israel as on solid footing, even as he openly weighs using the final stretch of his presidency to call on Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to finally make peace with the Palestinians.
