

Honorable Haley

The heat must have gotten to you, for you to endorse Marco Rubio.

What are his accomplishments that you seen fit to stand by him. I am a registered Republican, but I can insure you if Rubio wins the nomination for the Republican for the Whitehouse I will vote for whatever Democrat are running.

In my opinion He doesn't meet the requirements to lead the United States. I would recommend Gove J.Kasich. He is much more experienced for the Whitehouse. He has been in Congress, had a balanced budget. Knows how to deal with people, also foreign countries, and the experience with the military.

God help this country if Rubio gets the nomination, he scares me as much as Bernie sanders, but I would vote for him instead of Rubio.

I hope you are sorry that you made that terrible mistake. I have been around for 80 years, and voted in many elections.

Sincerely Kate
