PURPOSE: Gov. Haley will address the attendees at the LeadSC Young Professionals 2015 Summit. They would love for Governor Haley to speak from her heart offering leadership advice for the young professionals at the summit. Any insight on what she would go back and tell the late twenties or early thirties version of herself, would be awesome to hear. How Young Professionals can lead SC from their current positions. The next generation of SC leaders will be in attendance; anything that the Governor feels that they should know would be great to hear as well.
