Subject: RE: Gov Staff visit to Ardent Sentry (UNCLASSIFIED)

---

Bryan Stirling, Chief of Staff for Governor Haley, and Rebecca Schimsa from the Governor's staff ride with Matt Nichols, the aide for South Carolina Adjutant General Robert E. Livingston Jr., on a Lakota from A. Co. 2-151st Aviation, Eastover, S.C., May 21, 2013. They were flying out to the Savanna River Site to see the South Carolina National Guard response efforts during their annual training event, Ardent Sentry. The S.C. National Guard is participating in a major NORAD and USNORTHCOM training exercise called Ardent Sentry, May 17-21, 2013. It involves a scenario of a hurricane striking the South Carolina coast, requiring more than 1,500 members of the S.C. National Guard to practice disaster response activities and coordination procedures. (U.S. Army National Guard photo by Staff Sgt. Tracci Dorgan/Released)

Rob and Derrec-

Thought you might be interested in these from the Ardent Sentry exercise yesterday. With your approval and if no changes, I'd like to post to our SCNG Facebook and share with the SRS PIO, Bill Taylor. Thanks!
