Greetings,

I am writing to respectfully ask you to exercise your authority and rescind the orders for Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and case 2017MI401404 (rendered on October 16, 2017). As a former Federal juror in the Eastern District of Virginia, I want to continue supporting the U.S. Constitution and the judicial system.

However, I am not satisfied with Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court's decisions because:

1. The court appears to comply tendentiously with the intent (e.g., public safety) of the U.S. Constitution based on Title 44 of South Carolina law but not the letter or the spirit (e.g., natural rights, national security) of the U.S. Constitution.
2. The court, through its orders, is impeding my efforts to seek justice as a victim/survivor of a police case in Virginia.
3. The court, through its orders, unduly, unreasonably restricts my liberty, life, and body/property for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months and subjects me to financial harm and/or detrimental effects. Frankly, the court orders endanger me. (The court order for case 2017MI401026 states, "Pursuant to the S.C. Code Ann. §23-31-1030 and §44-22-100 DATRECIA EDWARDS is prohibited from purchasing and possessing firearms and ammunition and will be reported to SLED for this purpose.")

My goal is to rescind the court orders and cease the unnecessary, costly, detrimental treatment (next session is scheduled for October 30, 2017 at 2:15 p.m. EST). I contacted parties who possess legal knowledge or authority, including the United States Attorney's Office, District of South Carolina, Civil Rights Division and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I am open to pro bono, legal assistance. Please exercise your authority, investigate the matter, and rescind the court orders.

As background, it appears South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 44, Health, Chapter 17 (specifically, Article 7, Section 44-17-510 and following sections) permits Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court to comply with the intent (e.g. public safety) but not the letter or the spirit of the U.S. Constitution (e.g. natural rights, national security), which violates my constitutional rights. For example, the court used separate testimonies from the court-appointed examiners who evaluated negatively my use of silence/constitutional rights during a closed-door examination that occurred for less than 30 minutes on August 29, 2017. However, at the hearing on September 5, 2017, both examiners presented testimony that seemed inconsistent with the U.S. Constitution, American Psychological Association, "Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct," or standards for evaluating those who are allegedly mentally ill. Furthermore, the court seems unwilling to reconsider its initial decision or rescind the existing court orders even when I respectfully ask in writing or through verbal testimony for the court to do so. (To my knowledge, no court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem has filed legal documents to rescind the court orders or dismiss the cases on my behalf.) The court's unwillingness borders on being harsh, threatening, hostile toward me--a litigant for cases 2017MI401026 and 2017MI401404. Overall, the court appears to maintain a disregard for my rights enumerated in the U.S. Constitution, my medical history (i.e., multiple sclerosis and temporary cardiac issues), and my desires for my body/property.

I temporarily relocated to South Carolina after being a victim/survivor of crimes, including stalking and criminal harassment, that I reported to the police (case 2016104-0105) in Franconia/Alexandria (Fairfax County), Virginia. I believe the police case in Virginia is still open. As I slowly rebuild and move forward with my life, I would like to pursue justice without corruptly or by threats or force, or by any threatening letter or communication, influences, obstructs, or impedes, or endeavors to influence, obstruct, or impede, the due administration of justice (18 U.S.C. § 1503). The intent and spirit of the court orders for case 2017MI401026 and case 2017MI401404, as revealed by Judge Ralph J. Smiley on October 16, 2017 at the hearing, do not empower or allow me the freedom to seek justice.

Finally, Section 44-17-660 of the South Carolina law allows specific South Carolina employees to receive money due to the mental health commitment process. I am not a South Carolina employee and I did not receive money to comply with the court-ordered, involuntary treatment. I am pursuing a tentative job offer for a Federal, competitive, civilian position outside of South Carolina in accordance with 5 CFR part 536 and applicable sections. Unfortunately, at present, I am unable to pay for the court-ordered, involuntary treatment where, per the court orders, I "must comply with their treatments recommendations, take prescribed medications, and keep all scheduled appointments." Therefore, I believe the court, through its orders, subjects me to unreasonable and unnecessary restrictions on my liberty, life, and body/property; financial harm; and other detrimental effects. To my knowledge, no other U.S. state or territory has adversely assessed me in this manner, which leaves South Carolina through Richland County Probate Court seemingly responsible for my financial harm and/or detrimental effects.

Please assist me in protecting and defending my constitutional rights by rescinding the court orders for case 2017MI401026 and case 2017MI401404. Thank you for your consideration and courteous reply to dpedwards2@juno.com. Have a wonderful holiday season.

Kind regards,
Datrecia P. Edwards

Greetings,

I am writing to respectfully ask Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court to rescind the court order(s) for case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and dismiss and, then, remove case 2017MI401404 (rescheduled for October 16, 2017) from the docket.

I believe Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court violated or is violating my rights enumerated in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution, such as legality, fair procedures, or due process.

"Must" and "all" used in the second court order for case 2017MI401026 and signed by Judge Ralph J. Smiley indicate the court disregarded the U.S. Constitution, my medical history (i.e., multiple sclerosis and temporary cardiac issues, etc.), and my desires for my life and body/property. Thus, I believe the court order for case 2017MI401026 unduly and unreasonably restricts my liberty, life, and body/property and, in fact, endangers me.

Overall, I believe the court's decision for case 2017MI401026 seems tendentious and unconstitutional. Given this, is the court willing to rescind the order(s) for case 2017MI401026 and dismiss and, then, remove case 2017MI401404 from the docket? If so, will the court send via e-mail official documents stating the court order revocation and case dismissal?

Please reply to dpedwards2@juno.com before 3:30 p.m. EST on Friday, October 13, 2017 and advise concerning the court rescinded the order(s) for case 2017MI401026 and dismissed case 2017MI401404. Thank you for your consideration and courteous reply to dpedwards2@juno.com. Have a wonderful holiday season.

Greetings,

I am writing to respectfully ask Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court to complete three requests before 3:00 p.m. EST on Thursday, October 12, 2017, regarding case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and case 2017MI401404 (rescheduled for October 16, 2017). If the court is willing, kindly reply to dpedwards2@juno.com stating the requests have been completed and attach the approved, signed document(s).

As I mentioned in the below e-thread, I believe there is a conflict between South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 44, Health, Chapter 17 (specifically, Article 7, Section 44-17-510 and following sections) and my rights enumerated in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

*****

Therefore, I ask the court to:

1. Remove Tameika Isaac Devine as the court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem for cases 2017MI401026 and 2017MI401404.
2. Rescind the court order(s) for case 2017MI401026.
3. Dismiss case 2017MI401404 with prejudice and remove it from the docket.

At present, I am seeking pro bono assistance from lawyers who are licensed in South Carolina and are willing to submit legal documents that are aligned with the U.S. Constitution. Additionally, I contacted the FBI and/or other parties with legal knowledge or authority.

As a former Federal juror in the Eastern District of Virginia (Fairfax County), I want to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution. I attempted to bring the aforementioned matters to the attention of the judge who presided and signed orders for the subject cases. On the public website for Richland County, Probate Contacts, the name, job title, and contact information for the judge do not appear. After I searched the directory for the South Carolina Bar via its public website, the name of the judge who presided and signed the court order for case 2017MI401026 is associated with a lawyer at a South Carolina firm. The public website for the South Carolina firm lists the lawyer with the judge's similar name as still part of the firm. The websites for the South Carolina Bar and the firm were copyrighted in 2017. However, I am not sure whether the information on both websites is out-of-date or both parties have the same first name, middle initial, and last name.

Thank you for your consideration and courteous reply to dpedwards2@juno.com before 3:00 p.m. EST on Thursday, October 12, 2017 with updates, for example, changes to the cases' status, etc. Have a wonderful day and holiday season.

Kind regards,

Greetings,

I am writing to express my gratitude for the prompt response from the Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court. As an update for case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and case 2017MI401404 (rescheduled for October 16, 2017), the signed order to remove the court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem (see request 1) was sent via e-mail to me on yesterday.

I am willing to work with the newly appointed attorney and guardian ad litem regarding fulfilling requests 2 and 3. However, I am seeking other attorneys who are licensed in South Carolina and willing to fulfill the requests. Also, I am communicating with individuals who possess legal knowledge or authority.

I still maintain there is a conflict between South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 44, Health, Chapter 17 (specifically, Article 7, Section 44-17-510 and following sections) and my rights enumerated in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

*****

Therefore, I ask the court to:

1. Remove Edgar Kneece as the court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem for cases 2017MI401026 and 2017MI401404 (request completed on October 5, 2017).
2. Rescind the court order(s) for case 2017MI401026.
3. Dismiss case 2017MI401404 with prejudice and remove it from the docket.

*****

Thanks again for your professional, transparent conduct and courteous reply to dpedwards2@juno.com. Have a wonderful day and holiday season.

Kind regards,
Datrecia P. Edwards

Greetings,

As a courtesy and follow up to my e-mail sent last week, I am writing to respectfully ask Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court to complete three requests before 9:00 a.m. EST on Friday, October 6, 2017, regarding case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and case 2017MI401404 (scheduled for October 6, 2017). Kindly reply to dpedwards2@juno.com stating the requests have been completed and attach the approved, signed document(s).

As I mentioned in the below e-thread, I believe there is a conflict between South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 44, Health, Chapter 17 (specifically, Article 7, Section 44-17-510 and following sections) and my rights enumerated in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

*****

Therefore, I ask the court to:

1. Remove Edgar Kneece as the court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem for cases 2017MI401026 and 2017MI401404 (please refer to the e-mail from Nia Behling in this e-thread).
2. Rescind the court order(s) for case 2017MI401026.
3. Dismiss case 2017MI401404 with prejudice and remove it from the docket.

If the court is willing to remove Edgar Kneece and/or before proceeding with requests 2 and 3, I ask the court to appoint a lawyer who is willing to prepare and submit legal documents, such as a motion to dismiss, that are aligned with the U.S. Constitution. At present, I am seeking pro bono assistance from lawyers who are licensed in South Carolina.

As a former Federal juror in the Eastern District of Virginia (Fairfax County), I want to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution. I attempted to bring the aforementioned matters to the attention of the judge who presided and signed orders for the subject cases. On the public website for Richland County, Probate Contacts, the name, job title, and contact information for the judge do not appear. After I searched the directory for the South Carolina Bar via its public website, the name of the judge who presided and signed the court order for case 2017MI401026 is associated with a lawyer at a South Carolina firm. The public website for the South Carolina firm lists the lawyer with the judge's similar name as still part of the firm. The websites for the South Carolina Bar and the firm were copyrighted in 2017. However, I am not sure whether the information on both websites is out-of-date or both parties have the same first name, middle initial, and last name.

Thank you for your consideration and courteous reply to dpedwards2@juno.com before 9:00 a.m. EST on Friday, October 6, 2017 with updates, for example, changes to the cases' status, etc. Have a wonderful day.

Kind regards,
Datrecia P. Edwards

Greetings,

I am writing regarding Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court case 2017MI401026 (rendered on September 5, 2017) and case 2017MI401404 (scheduled for October 6, 2017).

I believe there is a conflict between South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 44, Health, Chapter 17 (specifically, Article 7, Section 44-17-510 and following sections) and my rights enumerated in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution. Therefore, I want to rescind the court order and, if appropriate, dismiss the upcoming case with prejudice and remove it from the docket. At present, I am waiting for suggestions that do not infringe on my constitutional rights from individuals with legal knowledge or authority.

Also, after I searched the directory for the South Carolina Bar via its public website, the name of the judge who presided and signed the court order for case 2017MI401026 is associated with a lawyer at a South Carolina firm. The public website for the South Carolina firm lists the lawyer with the judge's similar name as still part of the firm. The websites for the South Carolina Bar and the firm were copyrighted in 2017. However, I am not sure whether the information on both websites is out-of-date or both parties have the same first name, middle initial, and last name. Unfortunately, I could not locate contact information for the judge or other parties via Richland County's website.

I wanted to bring these matters to your attention and I understand the websites are perhaps out of your scope/control. Because I am unfamiliar with the process outlined in the Title 44 of South Carolina law, I am seeking clarification whether the court order signed on September 5, 2017 and sent to me via e-mail on September 6, 2017 contains up-to-date information.

Thank you for all you do and have a wonderful day.

Kind regards,
Datrecia P. Edwards

Subject: 2017MI401404: Request E-Address for Court-Appointed Attorney

Greetings,

I am writing regarding Richland County (South Carolina) Probate Court case 2017 MI40 1404, specifically to obtain the name and the e-address/e-mail for the court-appointed attorney.

Although the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution afford certain rights to me and I am not satisfied with the court orders and the decision rendered on September 5, 2017 for case 2017 MI40 1026, will you please advise who is the court-appointed attorney for case 2017 MI40 1404 and provide the attorney's e-address/e-mail?

Thank you and have a wonderful day.

Kind regards,

Datrecia P. Edwards
