What a gloomy weekend. But today the sun is out and giving me inspiration! Parks are inspiring places. Have you ever been inspired at a SC State Park? If so, tell us which one and tell us about the inspiring moment if you would like to share it.

Janet L. Lloyd Kalisch I'd like to know where you are that the sun is out. Not here, that's for sure.

Kevin Ansel The sunrise on Table Rock is amazing. Worth the hike. Reminds you how insignificant your problems really are.

Kristen Chapman Gibbons I have been inspired every time I've visited a SC State Park.

Jenny Kerr I am always reenergized in my commitment to get healthy & walk the dog more each time I visit Sesqui State Park. It's less than 10 miles from my home, and the kids still don't get bored on the path!

Patricia M. Bowie Table Rock State Park is one of my favorite parks in SC. The scenery is absolutely beautiful. It is simply gorgeous in the fall.

Kim Dufour We love taking our cameras to explore the various parks. We love the getting great new wildlife pictures.

Al James Although I'm partial, right now the power of nature is awe inspiring with the catawba river in flood at Landsford. 40 times its normal flow!

Jay Clingman Al James - Well, document the heck out of it so you can testify when North Carolina claims to want all of it so bad!

Judy Cannon Goff Well, can we say, "Table Rock rocks?!"
