Re: 97-DR-40-0171 Egleston, Corey Sr.

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to request a review of the above referenced child support case. The defendant was ordered to settle this case upon the establishment of a VA claim filed by the defendant for disability benefits (please see attached order). The defendant's case was settled and approved at 100% on or before August 2010, however, the arrearage owed is still past due. Please see that attached documentation from the VA that states that all claims are paid based on the original filing date, in short, the defendant received a lump sum payment from the VA and has yet to settle this case. In addition, the defendant is gainfully self-employed as a barber and is the owner of Egleston Unlimited (see attached). The defendant has not complied with the court order and does not make regular payments of $25.00 per week in which as based on a temporary order until his VA case was confirmed.

I feel that the defendant is willfully neglecting his responsibility to resolve this matter, as the child is reaching the age of 25 this year (12/3). Please advise me of any recourse your office will be willing to take to resolve this matter, as I feel it is a waste of the tax payer dollars to continue to carry this case for such an extended period of time. I would like your office to please look into having the defendant settle the past due amount owed currently of $1661.99 expeditiously.

Please review the enclosed request and advise me on how this matter can be resolved. I'm very disappointed that this case has dragged on this long and without merit. You may reach me at (803) 438-5188 if I may be of any assistance in resolving this matter.

Thank you in advance for your attention and assistance.

§3.400 General.

Except as otherwise provided, the effective date of an evaluation and award of pension, compensation or dependency and indemnity compensation based on an original claim, a claim reopened after final disallowance, or a claim for increase will be the date of receipt of the claim or the date entitlement arose, whichever is the later. (Authority: 38 U.S.C. 5110(a))

(a) Unless specifically provided. On basis of facts found.

(b) Disability benefits:

(1) Disability pension (§3.3). An award of disability pension may not be effective prior to the date entitlement arose.

(i) Claims received prior to October 1, 1984. Date of receipt of claim or date on which the veteran became permanently and totally disabled, if claim is filed within one year from such date, whichever is to the advantage of the veteran.

(ii) Claims received on or after October 1, 1984.

(A) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(1)(ii)(B) of this section, date of receipt of claim.

(B) If, within one year from the date on which the veteran became permanently and totally disabled, the veteran files a claim for a retroactive award and establishes that a physical or mental disability, which was not the result of the veteran's own willful misconduct, was so incapacitating that it prevented him or her from filing a disability pension claim for at least the first 30 days immediately following the date on which the veteran became permanently and totally disabled, the disability pension award may be effective from the date of receipt of claim or the date on which the veteran became permanently and totally disabled, whichever is to the advantage of the veteran. While rating board judgment must be applied to the facts and circumstances of each case, extensive hospitalization will generally qualify as sufficiently incapacitating to have prevented the filing of a claim. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the presumptive provisions of §3.342(a) do not apply.

(2) Disability compensation:

(i) Direct service connection (§3.4(b)). Day following separation from active service or date entitlement arose if claim is received within 1 year after separation from service; otherwise, date of receipt of claim, or date entitlement arose, whichever is later. Separation from service means separation under conditions other than dishonorable from continuous active service which extended from the date the disability was incurred or aggravated.

(ii) Presumptive service connection (§§3.307, 3.308, 3.309). Date entitlement arose, if claim is received within 1 year after separation from active duty; otherwise date of receipt of claim, or date entitlement arose, whichever is later. Where the requirements for service connection are met during service, the effective date will be the day following separation from service if there was continuous active service following the period of service on which the presumption is based and a claim is received within 1 year after separation from active duty.

(c) Death benefits:

(1) Death in service (38 U.S.C. 5110(j), Pub. L. 87-825) (§§3.4(c), 3.5(b)). First day of the month fixed by the Secretary concerned as the date of actual or presumed death, if claim is received with 1 year after the date the initial report of actual death or finding of presumed death was made; however benefits based on a report of actual death are not payable for any period for which the claimant has received, or is entitled to receive an allowance, allotment, or service pay of the veteran.

(2) Service-connected death after separation from service (38 U.S.C. 5110(d), Pub. L. 87-825) (§§3.4(c), 3.5(b)). First day of the month in which the veteran's death occurred if claim is received within 1 year after the date of death; otherwise, date of receipt of claim.

(3) Nonservice-connected death after separation from service.

(i) For awards based on claims received prior to October 1, 1984, or on or after December 10, 2004, first day of the month in which the veteran's death occurred if claim is received within one year after the date of death; otherwise, date of receipt of claim.

(ii) For awards based on claims received between October 1, 1984, and December 9, 2004, first day of the month in which the veteran's death occurred if claim is received within 45 days after the date of death; otherwise, date of receipt of claim. (Authority: 38 U.S.C. 5110(d))

(4) Dependency and indemnity compensation:

(i) Deaths prior to January 1, 1957 (§3.702). Date of receipt of election.

(ii) Child (38 U.S.C. 5110(e), Pub. L. 87-835). First day of the month in which entitlement arose if claim is received within 1 year after the date of entitlement; otherwise, date of receipt of claim.

Corey L. Egleston is a native of Colorado. He joined the United States Army as a Air Defense Specialist. He started to pursue his childhood passion of becoming a barber. He used his spare time to cut other soldiers' hair.

While at his last duty station at the 1st Air Defense Artillery, Corey took evening classes at a nearby community college for a professional license. One day while attending the Barber College, he noticed the direct lighting on the client's head that he was performing the hair cut. This became the StyleLight Pro to eliminate shadows, increase work productivity, and enhance the client's hair. Corey sketched and dated the vision in a note pad.

In 1996 Corey moved back to South Carolina. With the financial backing of his family, he co-owned and operated a barber shop. The sketches from his note pad were developed into a prototype. Word spread of the Prototypes - Clients, other barbers, and the community were requesting to purchase the New Lighting System. This prompted Corey to develop the StyleLight Pro Lighting System which he was granted in 1999 (other Patents Pending).

1998 Egleston Unlimited, LLC was formed for the sole purpose of designing and developing new inventions, products and services.

The Replaceable Collectible Inner Cylinder of the StyleLight Pro has an illuminated rotating (3) RPM Inner Cylinder can be printed with a simple PC program.

Egleston Unlimited and related StyleLight Pro - Brand merchandising has been on track to be a Global leader with a no competition product. The StyleLight Pro comes in many sizes and all with high end material use. The company will continue to expand into the Beauty Industry, Home Décor, Sports Licensing, Character Image Licensing and the Efficient Lighting Product Category and beyond.
