WE STILL HAVE ROOM FOR YOU! First-time camping families are invited to Huntington Beach State Park's Great American Backyard Camp Out Oct. 15-16. Families will stay overnight with a park ranger, who will help them set up their tent & teach camping and cooking secrets. The fee is $25 per family and covers all expenses for the weekend, except the kayaking excursion. Spaces are limited to the first 25 families! Call 843-235-8755 to register or for info!

Great American Backyard Campout at
Huntington Beach State Park
Oct. 15th-16th, 2011
Sponsored by Time Warner Cable

The Great American Backyard Camp Out is designed for first-time campers and is an adventure-filled weekend for the entire family. Families will stay overnight with a park ranger who will help participants set-up their tent (which is provided for the weekend) and teach cooking and camping secrets. Families will learn how to rig a crabbing line, throw a cast net, pull a seine net, paddle a kayak, and much more!

The fee of $25 per family covers all expenses for the overnight event, except the kayaking excursion, which requires an additional $15 per person fee. Participants will be asked to bring certain food items with them to be prepared at their campsite.

3 easy ways to register:

- Phone: 843-235-8755
- E-mail: huntingtonbeacheducation@scprt.com
- Visit the park's Education Center from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tue. - Sun. (closed Mondays).
