Sara,
Thanks for your assistance.

On a couple of occasions, (one was an SCMA function) I mentioned to Governor Haley we would like for her to come up and tour Milliken's new Innovation Gallery. She expressed interest and suggested I contact her scheduler. I have called, and submitted an online request, but I've been unable to get a call back (using the contact information provided online). Two items I'd like to discuss with someone:

- ☐ As you know, Governor Haley will be in Spartanburg on December 5 to accept the inaugural award of SCMA's "Roger Milliken Defender of Manufacturing Award" being held at the Marriott. Our CEO, Joe Salley, thought that since she was going to be in town, (and so was he) it might be a good day to have her tour Milliken, if it was convenient to her schedule.
- ☐ The other thing I wanted to clarify to someone is: I understand Governor Haley is also going to be at our Milliken Guest House on October 9, meeting with some Pacolet Milliken officials. I need to be sure the Governor understands that Pacolet Milliken is a small, completely separate, company from Milliken, and that this visit or dinner has nothing to do with Milliken & Company.

Thanks very much,
Richard
