

FEMA

Media Advisory

FOR MEDIA USE ONLY

Goose Creek Disaster Recovery Center Will Relocate to Summerville

What: The Berkeley County Magistrate's Office disaster recovery center located at 303 North Goose Creek Blvd. in Goose Creek will relocate to Summerville on Friday. The center temporarily closed Wednesday due to severe weather and was originally scheduled to reopen Thursday.

Where: Pine Ridge Fire Department located at 565 Myers Road in Summerville.

When: 8 a.m., Friday, Nov. 20.

###

FEMA's mission is to support our citizens and first responders to ensure that as a nation we work together to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards.

All FEMA disaster assistance will be provided without discrimination on the grounds of race, color, sex (including sexual harassment), religion, national origin, age, disability, limited English proficiency, economic status, or retaliation. If you believe your civil rights are being violated, call 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585(TTY/TDD).

FEMA's temporary housing assistance and grants for public transportation expenses, medical and dental expenses, and funeral and burial expenses do not require individuals to apply for an SBA loan. However, applicants who receive SBA loan applications must submit them to SBA loan officers to be eligible for assistance that covers personal property, vehicle repair or replacement, and moving and storage expenses.