

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20211211South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10159743172313166

South Carolina State Parks

at 0:30:04 on 12/11/2021 UTC · 🌐

LAST CALL! Makes a great gift!

Day 10, Friday, Dec. 10 - until midnight online ONLY take 10% off Park Passports! Purchase a park passport on this day online or at a park and take 10% off! Must enter the code DAY102021 at checkout online to receive the discount. www.SCParkStore.com

Passports give unlimited admission for 1 year to SC State Parks for you and everyone in your vehicle!

***Park Passports are punched for the month they are purchased. If you purchase a Park Passport now in December 2021 it will be punched for December and expire on December 31, 2022. Park Passports are not punched for future months.

Timeline photos

Elma L Strong Too bad I can't get a senior pass online.

at 0:35:47 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Kathryn Braun Fenner But my current passport doesn't expire until February so it isn't much of a deal if I have to get one today that expires in 12 months from today?

at 0:39:33 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Jasmin Roberts Poor Can you pay with gift cards?

at 2:02:39 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Kay H Baker Can this discount be combined with SC Senior Discount?

at 2:19:13 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Tags: deleted, hidden

Lynne Erica Eby The information on sale of passes says you can purchase online or at the parks today ONLY for the discount with the code and you can apply the senior or disabled discount. However, when you go online to buy it, it tells you that you cannot purchase them online for senior or disabled discounts. It is unfair that you do not make it clear that these disabled/senior passes can ONLY be purchased in person to show proof. Sad...

at 2:37:24 on 12/11/2021 UTC (hidden)

Version: Current

Tags: deleted, edited, hidden

Lynne Erica Eby Kay H Baker , yes, but they have to be purchased in person to show age or proof of disability. They say you can use the discount for seniors and disability online in the first post this morning but whenever you go to the website it tells you that they can ONLY be purchased in person. Sad that they contradict what they say. Now it's too late to purchase them in person.

at 2:41:44 on 12/11/2021 UTC (hidden)

Christine White Keefer Didn't have much luck using your online store portal tonight. Will just have to visit my local park store to get my 2022 pass, sans the discount. Oh well.

at 3:10:24 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Tags: deleted

Angie Droke I'm having issues getting my order to go through the online store.

at 3:27:38 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Tags: deleted

Angie Droke I'm having issues getting my order to go through as well. I spoke with my credit card company and they are approving the charge but it's being rejected by the merchant?

at 3:33:32 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Corinne Clover Got mine at one of the area parks today

at 3:49:56 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Iris Poleto Last year, passes were punched for Jan!

at 3:50:47 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Ralph Keisler Wish we could get the discount and have it punched once our current pass expires.

at 3:57:36 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Pat Garlipp Christine White Keefer - I was disappointed also! I could not purchase the senior pass with today's addl discount code online, said seniors had to buy in person and I could not get to a park today.

at 4:20:01 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Michelle Attaway Halbert Jasmin Roberts Poor you can in person.

at 11:18:49 on 12/11/2021 UTC

Suzanne Fox Conrad I missed the best deal yet. Didn't pop up in my feed until today 😊

at 18:54:19 on 12/11/2021 UTC