South Carolina State Parks

DID YOU KNOW that SC State Parks has a ceremonial corps team that presents the colors at events across the state? Here they are representing this past weekend at the Columbia Fireflies baseball game in Columbia! www.SouthCarolinaParks.com

Jim Montgomery Something looks amiss on the U.S. flag placement. It should be to the color guards right... Not to their left

Jim Montgomery When marching in line it will be in the front and then a pinwheel rotation would move it to the right when presented. The flag presented in this picture should be to the right of the formation. It is on the left of the formation.

Anne Elizabeth Jones So glad my dad could be apart of the Ranger Team at Huntington Beach State Park! He is retired now but continues to say those were his best years of life!

Norma Cooler Yes! And we were so appreciative that they (specifically Ray Stevens) were present at my dad's burial (retired from state parks) to present us with a state flag. 😊. One led our funeral procession through Huntington Beach following the hearse.....Daddy was the first superintendent of Huntington Beach. 😊
