BorgWarner Inc. expanding operations in Oconee County

$24.6 million investment expected to create 105 new jobs

This Veterans Day, as we honor the brave men and women who have served and continue to serve in our country's armed forces, we also pay tribute to their many contributions to our state.

The military footprint in South Carolina is strong and undeniable. Each year, the United States military brings a nearly $16 billion economic impact to the Palmetto State and supports more than 138,000 jobs. These numbers only tell part of the story. The flow of military dollars from the U.S. National Guard, retirees and defense contractors also causes a ripple effect statewide and gives a boost to our local communities.

However, the military's true impact is more than numbers and percentages; its values of trust, loyalty, service and integrity are woven into the very fabric of our state.

On this Veterans Day, we here at Commerce salute our armed services and its long-standing history in South Carolina. Through the efforts of the Military Base Task Force, which recently was relocated to Commerce, and our encouragement of veterans-based initiatives and programs, we remain steadfast in our support of South Carolina's military community,
