Attachments: SGPB Conference Flyer 2 \(7-26-13\).pdf

We hope that you'll make plans to join us in Louisville, Kentucky on September 6 for Southern Growth Policies Board's 2013 Conference. As detailed in the attached flyer, among the highlights will be the release of the 2013 Report on the Future of the South: Re-imagining Workforce Development. Also featured will be insights from business leaders such as Tom Volta, Vice President of Human Resources at UPS, workforce development thought leaders such as Doug Henton, author of The Cornerstones of Economic Security for Resilient Workers, and workforce policy leaders participating in a panel hosted by Thomas Zawacki, Secretary of the Kentucky Cabinet for Education and Workforce Development.

Find registration information at www.southerngovernors.org by clicking on the registration link for the Southern Governors' Association's annual meeting. When you begin the registration process, you'll find that you can register for the Southern Growth conference only or in conjunction with the Southern Governors' meeting on advanced manufacturing that follows from September 7-9.

We hope to see you in Louisville!
