Dear Nikki,

The generosity of our supporters never ceases to amaze me. Throughout the year, we've come together to support organizations making real change in communities across the U.S., the Americas, and the Caribbean.

But this holiday season, we have an opportunity to do more. We can reach our Holiday Giving Drive goal of $75,000 and make a lasting impact in our effort to end AIDS once and for all.

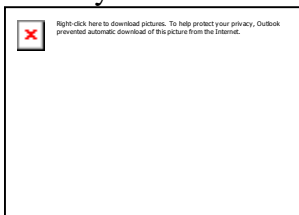

In addition to providing HIV prevention, treatment, and services, your gifts help us to change laws that criminalize people for simply being who they are – gay or transgender or HIV-positive. We're helping people understand and speak up for their rights, providing legal services for folks who are being unjustly prosecuted, and training police officers, prosecutors, and defense attorneys about the terrible impact of criminalizing LGBT and HIV-positive people. You make this important work possible!

And thanks to our generous friends Andy Knight and Beau Gratzner, all your online gifts will be matched up to \$75,000!

I hope you'll join me in these worthy efforts this holiday season by donating to the Elton John AIDS Foundation.

Give a gift, support real solutions, end AIDS – once and for all.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart,

Elton John
Founder
