Sorry about that last email. I have determined that my computer does not like me. Anyway, here are the questions:

- Are there any plans to relocate refugees, Syrian or otherwise, to Edgefield County?
- Have any refugees been relocated to our county in the past?
- Does Gov. Haley support relocation efforts of Syrian refugees in SC? Refugees in general?
- How did the two entities, World Relief and Lutheran Services, come to be responsible for the relocation efforts in SC?
- What say or influence, if any, does the state, specifically Gov. Haley, have in regards to these two organizations and who they relocate where?
- About how many refugees are relocated to SC each year?
- Are there any systems in place that provide information as to how well intergration for refugees is going in their new communities?
- What are Gov. Haley's thoughts on county councils issuing resolutions against relocation to their counties?

As I said, more questions are bound to come to mind. I hope you will be available to answer them as they do. I have called Karen as you suggested but did not reach her. I left a message and hope to hear from her soon.

Again, thank you for your time. I appreciate all your help ~ Tiffani
