Hello! Is sunbathing allowed at Huntington Beach state park?? I also read only 500 people are allowed, is that correct? And I have an annual pass so I can't reserve admission for the day, would I still be able to get in? How many parking spaces are there at Huntington? Normally, when I've gone I've never even seen it filled up. Bathrooms are open? Sorry for all the questions, we live almost 4 hours away and I'd hate to drive there and not get in. Thank you for your time!

Yes, you can sunbathe. Vehicle limit at one time in the park is 500. It is first-come, first-serve. I am not sure of normal capacity. It does fill up on occasion. We are cutting back the capacity for social distancing. There is no guarantee that you will get in. I would suggest arriving early. The park opens at 8 a.m.
