Tim Huebel Ha! I captured this image of the interior of a cabin at Poinsett State Park a while back during a year-long photography shoot for South Carolina State Parks. I'm glad to see it put to good use!

Poinsett is a beautiful State Park, and seemingly so undiscovered. It reminded me of a child, just wanting people to come out and play with it.

It has a small lake with boat rentals, meandering hiking trails, campsites secluded by Spanish Moss, and a summit from which to watch sunsets.

It's also very quiet. You won't be disappointed if you come. I've got to get back there soon!

Emily Campbell My family went camping there over the 4th of July. The park rangers are friendly and very knowledgeable about the area. This would be a great place to take scouts out camping...Or work an Eagle Project!

Rose M Sestokas I think the girl scouts already do go camping there. I lived in Wedgefield for 16 years and we would go down there and swim in the lake. Cost of things I think stopped that, but the trails are so nice and you learn about things without even trying or knowing it! It is a place where you can think and spend time with friends, family and nature. Enjoy!

David Warren My wife and I went there for a getaway in January during MLK holiday. We loved it. It was very cold so the fireplace came in handy with lots of firewood we brought.

Uma Kaufman very good SP to camp never have seen it real crowded.....am surprised that the local people don't use it like some of the other SP we've camped at. The trail around the lake is nice was just there 2 weeks ago.

JT Martin Great place to set-up home base for a weekend of fun! Within a short distance you'll find the K3 MTB trails, the Palmetto trail, Sparkleberry Swamp, & Manchester State Forest OHV riding area. You'll also find Congaree N.P. within 30 minutes drive time. This is a great place for adventure!
