Meet Suzie Boss: Education Writer and Project-Based Learning Consultant

If you participated in our Project Based Learning Institute earlier this year then you remember our break-out session with Suzie Boss.

Suzie Boss is a writer and educational consultant from Portland, Oregon who focuses on the power of teaching and learning to improve lives and transform communities. She is the author of several popular books for educators including Setting the Standard for Project Based Learning (coauthored with John Larmer and John Mergendoller of the Buck Institute) and All Together Now: How to Engage Your Stakeholders in Reimagining School. She also collaborated with award-winning global educator Stephen Ritz on The Power of a Plant, which tells his story of creating green classrooms and healthier outcomes for children.
