

South Carolina
By virtue of a Precept to me Directed by James T. Smith Esq the Magistrate of the County of Beaufort bearing date the twenty third day of November Anno Domini 1792 I have commanded and have caused John Fairbanks Esq Attorney for John Albert Esquire of the County of Beaufort in the County of Middlebury By virtue of a Writ from the Hon^{ble} General John Eusebius Calhoun Baron of Carry and one of the Justices of the Supreme of the Province of South Carolina bearing date the twenty fourth day of April And is Glorious Spring and being a favorable season according to the death of the said Marshes of the White River to the South West in Beaufort River I to the marshes of the same to the North East as is found in the said Writ and was Bryan as before Esq and that as said not said out and to the North and South in marshes in said and said out and said said said from and marshes as are represented in the above and mentioned Plot being under my hand this twenty fifth day of February Anno Domini 1792
By me John Bryan Esquire
Notary Public for the Province of South Carolina
I Daniel H. Sullivan Esquire Sheriff of the County of Beaufort