Doug, this is Danny Varat in SC Lieutenant Governor Kevin Bryant's office. We have a request for a WH visit for a German family currently living in Greenville with the father working at BMW. The kids visited DC on a school trip last Fall, and the class toured the WH, but the German children didn't bring their passports and couldn't enter. The family wants to go back and all tour, if possible. They've given me the range of April 9th - May 2nd, so hopefully we can find them space.

For Full disclosure, these kids are at my daughter's school, and I was on the DC trip mentioned above. The teacher simply forgot to remind them to bring their passports, so I'm trying to help them with a return trip.

Thanks a lot, and I can pass along their names and passports when you need them

Danny
