

The Interprofessional Approach to Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia

The NJ Geriatric Education Center (NJGEC), in collaboration with DHHS/Health Resources and Services Administration, and DHHS/Administration on Community Living, is pleased to present a FREE 5-module web-based program on the interprofessional approach to assessment and management of Alzheimer's disease and dementia.

Participants are encouraged to view the entire series in order, since the modules build on one another. However, participants have the option to register for individual modules. All modules will be archived for later viewing. Free CE credit is available for nurses and social workers.

All participants must pre-register HERE.

You will be sent an Adobe Connect link and dial-in number after registering.

For additional information, please contact NJGEC at (856) 566-7086 or nagurney@rowan.edu.
