[Excerpt, emphasis added]

During the 1950s, as Graham's appeal grew, he moved toward the strategic decision to make his crusades' organization teams more diverse ecclesiastically, leading to the 1957 New York crusade , in which well-known modernists appeared on the crusade platform to receive Graham's recognition of them as Christian brothers. In Reforming Fundamentalism, George Marsden observed that Graham's new approach was "cooperation with a group that was predominantly non-evangelical and even included out-and-out modernists.

It also meant sending converts back to their local churches, no matter how liberal those churches might be"

(Reforming Fundamentalism: Fuller Seminary and the New Evangelicalism [Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1995], p. 162).

For many Fundamentalists, this was the step after which they were not willing to support Graham any longer.

Bob Jones, Jr. , and his father, Bob Jones, Sr. , a leading evangelist of the first half of the twentieth century, along with other Fundamentalist leaders, rebuked Graham's compromise openly and publicly and announced that they must separate from him .

Billy Graham in his own words, including :

- Salvation without knowing Jesus Christ (What about John 14:6, KJV ?)
- Graham welcomed and supported by Roman Catholic (false) church (What about 2 Corinthians 6:14-18, KJV ?)
- Graham says we're closer to Islam than we really think we are (?)
- Graham preferred 'big love' of evangelicalism to 'big stick' and intolerance of fundamentalism (As he saw things)
- Graham friends with Roman Catholic Bishops, Archbishops, and Pope (What about James 4:4, KJV ?)
- Graham says (erroneously) Roman Catholic (false) church believes in Christ [sic - the "jesus" of Rome is "another Jesus",
- 2 Corinthians 11:4, KJV - whose merits alone are insufficient to save]
- Graham doesn't know what to think about the existence of Purgatory (What about Hebrews 9:27, KJV ?)
- Graham equally at home in an Anglican, or Baptist, or Brethren Assembly, or Roman Catholic (false) church (?)
- Graham says has wonderful fellowship and very comfortable with the Vatican (END Video)

Question for Bible-believing Christians : Are Billy Graham's own words consistent with the Bible, the Word of God ?

Answer: No. Billy Graham was a false teacher, a false prophet, and a useful "pied piper" for Rome, a useful tool toward bringing about a One World Global, false, anti-Christ "church", headquartered at the Vatican, under the Pope, who in turn is actually under the control of the Jesuit General (since 1814 , after the end of the Suppression of the Jesuit Order by the Papacy), also in Rome.

"Following the New England Crusade, thousands of those who came forward are now in the process of being integrated into the Catholic church. [Excerpts, emphasis added]

Graham's early career during the post-World War II years reflected the influence he felt from leading Fundamentalists from the first half of the twentieth century. As late as 1950, Graham's television broadcast, Hour of Decision, staged one of its programs in the newly constructed facilities of Bob Jones University in Greenville, SC. Dr. Bob Jones, Jr., then the president of the university, appeared as a special guest in that program.

During the 1950s, as Graham's appeal grew, he moved toward the strategic decision to make his crusades' organization teams more diverse ecclesiastically, leading to the 1957 New York crusade, in which well-known modernists appeared on the crusade platform to receive Graham's recognition of them as Christian brothers. In Reforming Fundamentalism, George Marsden observed that Graham's new approach was "cooperation with a group that was predominantly non-evangelical and even included out-and-out modernists. It also meant sending converts back to their local churches, no matter how liberal those churches might be" (Reforming Fundamentalism: Fuller Seminary and the New Evangelicalism [Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1995], p. 162). For many Fundamentalists, this was the step after which they were not willing to support Graham any longer. Bob Jones, Jr., and his father, Bob Jones, Sr., a leading evangelist of the first half of the twentieth century, along with other Fundamentalist leaders, rebuked Graham's compromise openly and publicly and announced that they must separate from him .

The American Council of Christian Churches joined in that separation and observed the great harm that Graham's new evangelical approach was bound to cause in the field of evangelism and in the ranks of churches that continued to preach the Bible. Some predicted that Graham would prove to be one of the most destructive and divisive forces in the history of American Evangelicalism.

His message appeared to remain the same, but as the years passed, his crusades began to introduce more elements of the popular culture, and Graham himself began to speak of greater cooperation with a whole array of what he called "Christian" denominations, including Roman Catholics. Eventually, he widened his view to include full-blown syncretism. In a May 1997 interview with Dr. Robert Schuller on Schuller's Hour of Power television program, Graham agreed with Schuller's view that people could be saved without any reference to the name of Christ at all.

During the years that followed the 1957 watershed decision, events continued to vindicate predictions by Fundamentalists that Graham's approach to evangelism was going to lead to increasing accommodations to liberal Protestantism and to blurring of the lines that separate Protestantism from Roman Catholicism. In receiving an honorary degree in 1967 from Belmont Abbey College, a Roman Catholic institution near Graham's North Carolina home, the evangelist said of the gospel, "That gospel has founded this school, that gospel has brought me here tonight." Two years earlier, the executive vice-president of the college, Cuthbert Allen, wrote, "Billy Graham is preaching a moral evangelical theology most acceptable to Catholics."

"[Billy Graham] began his evangelistic crusade ministries in 1947."

"He corresponded with Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., and assured him he was staying in the fundamentalist camp. In 1952, Billy Graham endorsed the Revised Standard Version (RSV), which sent lightning bolts in the ranks of Bible believing fundamentalists. Then in the 1957 Crusade in Madison Square Garden [NYC], he had invited and began an association with 1,400 churches, which included 40 denominations. This sent Billy Graham on the road to being a major player in ecumenism. This Graham crusade was sponsored by the Protestant Council of Churches, which in turn was connected to the National and the World Councils of Churches."

"Bob Jones Sr. said this in response to the Madison Square Garden Crusade, "I personally think that it was at this point the devil took Billy up on a high mountain and showed him the kingdoms of this world, and how popular he would be. Whether it was the height that made him dizzy, the excitement of what the world had to offer, or the thought that he could win great numbers to the Lord, I believe that at this point Billy sold out true evangelism and, instead of doing the good he might have done, he set in motion the wheels that would harm generations to come."

Chapter Eight: The Fallen Idol

The Vatican always looks and plans way into the future, from 25, to 50, to 100 years in advance. After World War II, the Vatican had to pick and back an American champion who would be a friend, a man they would help put on a pedestal, who would be loved by everybody. God forbid that he should ever be a Martin Luther! This champion would woo and win the hearts of the American people, a biggie, a champion they would support. He could be used as the pied piper who would pull all the evangelicals into the arms of the pope.

They wanted a man who would be a good speaker, a man with charisma who could pack stadiums; a man who would preach a gospel message, but on the soft side; one who would never attack the Vatican. And so when they found him, William Randolph Hearst, a good Roman Catholic publisher, used his newspaper chain to push Billy Graham to fame.

For 30 years, Billy Graham spoke to multitudes and became greatly loved, respected, and imitated. When he preached, he was honored and men praised him. Yet when Jesus Christ preached, they killed Him.

I often read the scripture: "Whosoever, therefore, will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." The newspapers never really blasted Billy Graham. Magazines said he was one of the world's most loved men. Somehow, I kept getting a "tilt" sign flashing in my mind. I've loved Billy, prayed for him and supported him. But I sensed something was wrong.

I was told that when Anita Bryant spoke out against homosexuals and asked for Billy's support, he turned her down. He played it cool. Anita Bryant took the heat and was persecuted for her stand, but not Billy. He was loved by the world for his position.

Billy Graham began his ministry as a fundamentalist, and as time passed, he changed his position. Listen to this:

In the Catholic Herald of June 3, 1966, Billy Graham is quoted as being a friend of the Jesuits in the United States.

Here's another one: Dr. Billy Graham received an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from the Roman Catholic College, Belmont Abbey, in 1967. Billy noted the significance of the occasion by saying that this is "a time when Catholics and Protestants could meet together and greet each other as brothers, whereas 10 years ago, they could not."

In April, 1972, Billy Graham received the International Franciscan Award in Minneapolis, given by the Franciscan Friars for true ecumenism. Before I quote what Billy Graham said about Francis of Assisi, first let me say this about St. Francis. He believed he was saved by works, by helping the poor. This way, he believed he was saving his soul.

St. Francis was canonized, which means he was made a saint by the Roman Catholic Institution because of his strong position on the doctrine of works. Beloved, we know that this is unscriptural. Did you know that St. Francis of Assisi blessed and baptized animals and gave them Christian names?

Now, what did Billy Graham say about this strange fellow? He said, "While I am not worthy to touch the shoe laces of St. Francis, yet this same Christ that called Francis in the 13th century also called me to be one of His servants in the 20th century."

When Billy Graham appeared on the Phil Donahue Show of October 11, 1979, in discussing Pope John Paul II's visit to the United States of America, Billy Graham said, "I think the American people are looking for a leader, a moral and spiritual leader that believes something. And he (meaning the pope) does. He didn't mince words on a single subject. As a matter of fact, his subject in Boston was really an evangelistic address in which he asked the people to come to Christ, to give their lives to Christ.

I said, 'Thank God I've got somebody to quote now with some real authority.*' "How tragic. A man who once used the Bible as his authority is now putting the pope up on a pedestal and looking to him.

*October 11, 1979, Transcript #10119.

In the beginning, Billy Graham was greatly used of God, but I believe Billy gave in to tremendous pressures and compromised.

And he is now walking hand in hand with the whore of Revelation.

A few years ago, 5 pastors from Mexico came to see me, asking for help. They told me I must talk to Billy Graham.

I told them that was impossible, I was just a little tract publisher. Then they told me Billy Graham had destroyed their churches.

They said he held a crusade, and told all those who had received Christ to go back to their original churches and win those people to Christ. The pastors told me their people followed Billy's instruction and all went back to the Roman Catholic system .

Twelve years of work destroyed in one night .

Dr. Rivera, the ex-Jesuit priest, told me he knew Billy was being used by the Vatican in 1950 when the word came to all the Jesuits in Central and South America telling them to fill the stadiums with Roman Catholics whenever Billy Graham spoke . Millions were spent to promote Billy Graham as the world's greatest evangelist.

The Star, June 26, 1979

Rome gives nothing to anybody unless you pay it off. Could it be that his final payoff was to introduce Pope John Paul II as the greatest moral leader of the world? Which he did. Didn't he realize when he did this he was giving the whore a cloak of respectability? And all of Billy's followers, the evangelicals and multitudes of others across this land who listen to his every word, heard this endorsement, and trusting Billy, turned and gave their love to the communist from Poland dressed in his papal robes, who claims to be the representative of Christ on this earth. I can picture the pope smiling to himself, flying back victoriously to Rome. He knew that Billy had been a good investment.

It's a deadly game, beloved. And now that his work is over, he's no longer needed. I believe the Vatican set Billy up when he went to Russia. Believers in Christ go to our Lord for guidance and to the scriptures, and pray that God, the Holy Spirit, will lead us in all truth.

But Billy admitted that he sought advice from Vatican officials about his trip to Russia. They told him to go quietly and not to criticize the communists' practices. And when he followed their instructions, the suffering brothers and sisters rotting in Russia's prisons who got 5 to 10 years for passing out a single gospel tract, were crushed when Billy announced to the world that there was religious freedom in Russia. Yes, beloved, Billy Graham, as much as I love him and hate to say it, I believe was cleverly used as a smokescreen and as a pied piper for the whore of Revelation.

[CLL: Excerpt, emphasis added]

"It came to my attention that Billy Graham actually said that abortion in cases of rape, incest and life of the mother is acceptable. This was very troubling to me because I am one conceived in rape and this means that it would have been acceptable for someone to have thrown me in the garbage. I respect Mr. Graham for all he has done to share Christ with the world. He loves people so much that he has dedicated his life to telling them about LIFE but to agree with the devil that some babies should be destroyed was more than I could ignore. It is my desire that the TRUTH will set everyone free.

And this truth will not only set free those who were once blind but also the most vulnerable unborn. So the week of December 9th

I contacted the office of the Billy Graham Foundation. I asked the receptionist what was the official stand on abortion for their organization. She forwarded me to Mary. Mary seemed extremely defensive but I told her I too was a Christian and just wanted to clear things up. I asked if Billy Graham indeed said it was "acceptable" to perform an abortion in cases of rape. She informed me

"I don't want to give you my opinion." I assured her "I don't want your opinion. I want what your company stands for." She said that their website had that information on it. When I said it didn't have anything about rape and incest or the life of the mother statement she again said, "I don't want to argue." Once again I assured her I didn't want her opinion and then asked, "Do you not know what your company believes?" I paused and there was no response. I then asked if someone else would know.

She insisted there was no one and told me to inquire through the contact page on their website. I did. A few days later

I received the following email:"

"Juda,

We appreciate the opportunity to provide clarification regarding Mr. Graham's comments. He has stated :

"I am opposed to abortion, except possibly in cases of rape, incest, or when the mother's life is at stake .

I oppose the casual approach to abortion that is so common today, and I believe it is one of the most serious sins of the modern world in the eyes of God."

Please note the word "possibly" in Mr. Graham's statement. This is not a recommendation, but a recognition that under certain LIMITED situations, it MIGHT be necessary. You may want to read the portion of Mr. Graham's book STORM WARNING entitled "The Abortion Holocaust." It deals more extensively with his perspective. It is found on pages 233 through 236. In the book, he notes, "The Bible makes it clear that God sees the unborn infant not as a piece of superfluous tissue, but as a person created by Him for life." Mr. Graham strongly opposes "abortion on demand" and was instrumental in the founding of the ministry of Care Net, the largest evangelical network of crisis pregnancy centers. Their ministry seeks to provide the most accessible and effective abortion alternatives possible."

Anti-Bible 'Theistic Evolution' accepted by Billy Graham and Billy and supported by the [false Roman Catholic church

'Theistic Evolution' is an attempt to combine the existence of God with Evolution, rejecting the Creator's true account of His Six-Day Creation as revealed in the Bible, in Genesis chapters 1 and 2 (KJV), and instead claiming God's method of creation was through evolution ! Theistic Evolution is false teaching, it is a Bible-rejecting abomination.

"I don't think that there's any conflict at all between science today and the scriptures. I think that we have misinterpreted the Scriptures many times and we've tried to make the Scriptures say things they weren't meant to say, I think that we have made a mistake by thinking the Bible is a scientific book. The Bible is not a book of science. The Bible is a book of Redemption, and of course I accept the Creation story. I believe that God did create the universe. I believe that God created man, and whether it came by an evolutionary process and at a certain point He took this person or being and made him a living soul or not, does not change the fact that God did create man. ... whichever way God did it makes no difference [SIC] as to what man is and man's relationship to God."

<https://billygraham.org/answer/how-can-the-bible-be-correct-about-the-world-being-created-in-six-days/>

June 1, 2004

Q: How can the Bible be correct about the world being created in six days?

A: Many Christians become troubled when they read the creation account in the Bible and then listen to the ideas of evolutionists. The Bible, of course, asserts that God created the universe and everything in it.

Evolutionists, on the other hand, usually leave God completely out and assume that everything "just happened."

In addition, evolutionists describe life developing over vast periods of time as a scientific fact, though it is really only a theory.

Some scientists who believe the biblical account of God's creation think that it can fit with some aspects of evolutionary theory. They use terms like "progressive" or "continuous" creation. For example, some suggest that the days of creation in chapter one of Genesis might be "age days," that is, long periods of time in which God created and then helped things develop.

For in-depth information about this and similar viewpoints, contact the American Scientific Affiliation, P. O. Box 668, Ipswich, Massachusetts 01938, telephone (978) 356-5656. Others believe that the six days of Genesis are literal 24-hour days in which God created everything. They do not think that the actual facts of science support long periods of development. For more information on this viewpoint, contact the Institute for Creation Research, 1806 Royal Lane, Dallas, Texas 75229; telephone: (800) 337-0375.

It is important to note that there can be no real conflict between the facts of the Bible and the facts of science, since God was the Author of both. The problems arise when we begin to interpret those facts.

Since Christians hold various views, it is important to keep an attitude of humility and charity toward others in these complicated areas. One fact is absolutely clear from the Bible - God is the Creator!

Theistic Evolution is False Teaching, it is incompatible with the Bible

Man could NOT and did NOT evolve from apes. Evolution requires the lives and deaths of many creatures over MILLIONS of years eventually resulting in the evolution of Man. However, the Bible reveals death did not enter the world until sin, and sin did not enter the world until AFTER man and woman were created, and then in Genesis chapter 3 (KJV), Adam and Eve sinned.

False Teaching comes from False Teachers.

Theistic Evolution and the Day-Age Theory

<http://www.icr.org/article/theistic-evolution-day-age-theory/>

MARCH 01, 1980

[Excerpt]

(14) The theological problem of sin and death.

According to theistic evolutionists, plant and animal life flourished and died at least 500 million years before man evolved.

Their deaths have been recorded as the fossil remains embedded in the sedimentary rocks of the so-called geologic column .

Romans 5:12, however, does not agree: 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:' Edited to use [KJV].

The passage then goes on to identify Adam as the one man referred to in verse 12. There is nothing ambiguous about the passage; it means exactly what it says: Adam was the first man, and there was no death prior to the Garden of Eden incident recorded in Genesis 3. Either theistic evolution and its day-age theory are wrong, or Romans 5:12 is in error. There is no harmonizing or fence-straddling here; one must make a choice between holding to theistic evolution or believing the plain statements in the Bible.

[CLL: Emphasis, comments added]

CBN.com – LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA (ANS) -- Speaking on the April 2 edition of CNN's Larry King Live program

Dr. Billy Graham said that that [sic] Pope John Paul II was the most influential voice for morality and peace in the world in the last 100 years. [sic]

Dr. Graham told Larry King he had the privilege of seeing the Pope on several occasions at the Vatican.

"And tonight, I have a very strange feeling of loss. I almost feel as though one of my family members has gone.

I loved him very much and had the opportunity of discussing so many things with him. And we wrote each other several times during the years," Dr. Graham said.

Larry King asked Dr. Graham: "Did he actually say to you once, 'We are brothers' "?

GRAHAM: That's correct. He certainly did. He held my hand the first time that I met him about 1981 -- he'd just been Pope for two years when I saw him first. Because when he was elevated to the papacy, I was preaching in his [Roman Catholic] cathedral in Krakow that very day. And we had thousands of people in the streets. And watching the television today of Krakow has brought back many memories.

KING: You said that he was an Evangelist [sic].

GRAHAM: He was, indeed [sic]. He traveled throughout the world to bring his Christian [sic - Romish, unbiblical, anti-Christ] message to the world. And we see tonight the outpouring from the world that he touched. And I think he touched almost everybody in the whole world.

KING: What, Billy, in your thoughts -- you said you feel like it's a personal loss. What in the human sense was so special about him?

GRAHAM: I think it was his background in Poland. And I had finished preaching all over Poland, gotten to know many people, and I knew a little bit about where he came from.

"And he was a suffering pope, too. He suffered as much as anybody you could ever imagine. His mother died when he was young. And he had that terrible assassination attack. And through it all, he taught us how to suffer. And I think in recent days he's taught us how to die.

KING: There is no question in your mind that he is with God now? [sic]

GRAHAM: Oh, no. There may be a question about my own , but I don't think Cardinal Wojtyla, or the Pope -- I think he's with the Lord [sic], because he believed [sic]. He believed in the Cross [sic]. That was his focus throughout his ministry, the Cross, no matter if you were talking to him from personal issue or an ethical problem, he felt that there was the answer to all of our problems, the cross and the resurrection. And he was a strong believer [sic - Karol Wojtyla, aka Pope John Paul II was a strong believer in the Roman false goddess "Mary", whose large initial "M" was prominently displayed on his papal crest. Karol Wojtyla's motto was "Totus Tuus" (Totally yours), directed to the Roman Catholic "Mary" .].

CLL: Pope John Paul II crest: "M" for Roman Catholic "Mary" [not the Biblical Mary]

KING: I understand that you've been invited to the funeral, but because of your own health, you can't attend. But someone in the Graham family is going to go?

GRAHAM: That's correct.

KING: Do you know who will go?

GRAHAM: I don't have the physical strength to go, and I have been invited. I was invited about six or seven months ago by the Vatican ahead of time. And they've asked that I come. So I asked if I could send my daughter. They wanted a woman to come representing me. So I'm asking my daughter, Anne Lotz, to go. And she's going with an associate of mine. And then my son, Franklin, will be going to the enthronement of the new Pope.

So in this April 2005 article above was the worldly, ecumenical, unbiblical, pro-Rome, pro-Pope counsel of the man people have called America's pastor ?!

So if Billy Graham was America's pastor, what is the condition of his "flock" ?

In America: Chaos, Violence (e.g., multiplied school shootings, over almost two decades 1999 - 2018), Fornication, Adultery, Child-Murder-by-"Abortion", Divorce, 40% Unwed Births, Sodomy, etc., etc.

The Lord Jesus Christ said, "... by their fruits ye shall know them." Matthew 7:20, KJV

The gospel of Rome is a FALSE GOSPEL. Paul the apostle, writing under the inspiration of God the Holy Ghost, wrote: "... If any man preach any other gospel unto you than ye have received, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:9, KJV.

Which are professing Christians going to believe, the words of false teacher Billy Graham, or the inspired Word of God, the Bible !!!

"In the long war on the truth, the most formidable, relentless and deceptive enemy has been Roman Catholicism .

It is an apostate, corrupt, heretical, false Christianity, it is [a front] for the kingdom of Satan . The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ has always understood this. And even through the Dark Ages from 400 to 1500, prior to the Reformation, genuine Christian believers set themselves apart from that system, and were brutally punished and executed for their rejection of that system."
