South Carolina State Parks

at 15:47:10 on 8/20/2021 UTC · 🌐

Today we cut a ribbon and opened our new lakefront Camper Cabin at Chester State Park! The project was made possible thanks to a $50,000 grant from the Lutz Foundation. The camper cabin is available for reservations. Reserve here: <https://reserve.southcarolinaparks.com/chester>

Cabin details include: ADA Accessible, Air Conditioning, BBQ Grill, Deck/Porch, Heating & Air Conditioning, Lakefront, Picnic Table, Refrigerator

Cabin is ADA Accessible. Includes private fire ring and Adirondack chairs, and indoor breakfast nook with mini-fridge.

Cabin is located in the campground. Cabin guests will have access to the Campground Comfort Station for shared restroom and shower facilities.

This cabin has one bedroom with two bunk beds. One bunk bed consists of one (1) Full-sized bed and one (1) Twin-sized bed. The second bunk bed consists of two (2) Twin-sized beds. Linens are NOT included with cabin rental.

Kathy Osborne The post was one hour ago - I tried to book several different dates and it says it is not available - I'm confused!
at 16:56:13 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Laurie Cabaniss Lewis Harvin Bedenbaugh, I can't speak to the official response to this, but it would not be easy to maneuver to the restroom from this cabin. I'm sad that they didn't build it self contained with its own facilities. A composting toilet at least.

at 17:00:53 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Harvin Bedenbaugh Laurie Cabaniss Lewis If this is the case, then the lack of planning for a whole experience is disappointing. I got excited when I saw that the cabin is accessible, but a paved path to the facilities is a necessity if none are available on site.

Barbara Morris Pity SCStateParks wouldn't spend some money to bring St. Phillips Island park up to decent standard. Horrible tour experience there- was embarrassed to be citizen of SC for what visitors from other states had to experience on tour there!

at 20:56:25 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Laurie Cabaniss Lewis Jonnie Godfrey Schulte, I don't know. It is very nice, but not great for accessibility with the bathroom and shower house there.
at 21:03:20 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Harvin Bedenbaugh Jonnie Godfrey Schulte I think that just refers to the ramp.
at 21:04:40 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Belinda-Ronald Livingston They need cabins built like this at the State Park on Lake Wateree
at 21:11:12 on 8/20/2021 UTC

Laurie Cabaniss Lewis Harvin Bedenbaugh, I'm thinking they said ramp, paved parking space, and the doorway width, but I may have forgotten something. We were there when they were working on it. It's lovely, but not practical as a handicapped accessible option in my opinion.

South Carolina State Parks The restroom has a sidewalk from the road but the campground loop/road is gravel. The restroom is ADA compliant.
at 12:09:00 on 8/23/2021 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Robin O'Flanagan these are "camper cabins" so like when you are camping, you have the campground bathhouse for your use.
at 12:09:40 on 8/23/2021 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Tiffany Byington Fackrell it includes water and electricity in the cabin, but no hookup for a camper.

Emily Walker South Carolina State Parks I strongly suggest you include a person who uses a wheelchair when planning, designing, and building things you want to be truly ADA compliant. The ADAG guidelines are a start. Living with the result is a whole other thing.

Robin O'Flanagan South Carolina State Parks being handicapped, it wouldn't work for me. I use my RV. It does look pretty.
