---

Dear Colleague,

Today at 2:30p.m. EDT, Vice President Joseph Biden will formally release the first installment of the Quadrennial Energy Review (QER) at an event in Philadelphia. We invite you to watch the live video stream at whitehouse.gov/live.

The first installment of the QER focuses on the transmission, storage, and distribution infrastructure that links energy supplies to intermediate and end-users. The QER provides a roadmap for Federal energy policy objectives, legislative proposals to Congress, Executive actions, and financing and incentive programs. You can download the QER online at energy.gov/qer.

Sincerely,

Karen Wayland
